First World War 1914 18:

The First World War, 1914-1918 Gerd Hardach, 1981 The First World War unquestionably represents an important climacteric in economic history However the significance of that climacteric is variously interpreted Essentially there are four themes whose order of priority depends on the observer's view point the decay of the classical capitalist world economy based on Great Britain and the gold standard the progress of industrialisation overseas brought about by the temporary economic paralysis of Europe the long term effect of structural changes in the economies of the warring industrial countries more especially the merging of the economy and the apparatus of state finally the development of the international labour movement from its nadir in August 1914 to its triumphant culmination of the Russian October Revolution I have endeavoured to the best of my ability to do justice to these various aspects and to place them in a common context which might be described as the crisis of the capitalist world economy The First World War, 1914-1918 Charles à Court Repington, 1920 The First World War Charles à Court Repington, 1920 1914-1918 David Stevenson, 2004 In the summer of 1914 Europe exploded into a frenzy of mass violence The war that followed had global repercussions destroying four empires and costing millions of lives Even the victorious countries were scarred for a generation and we still today remain within the conflict's shadow In this major new analysis published ninety years after the First World War began David Stevenson re-examines the causes course and impact of this war to end war placing it in the context of its era and exposing its underlying dynamics His book provides a wide ranging international history drawing on insights from the latest research It offers compelling answers to the key questions about how this terrible struggle unfolded questions that remain disturbingly relevant for our own time The First World War, 1914-1918 Charles à Court Repington, 1920 The First World War, 1914-1918 Charles A'Court Repington, 1921 The First World War, 1914-1918 C.
