First And Second Maryland Cavalry Csa:

First & Second Maryland Cavalry, C.S.A. Robert J. Driver, 1999 The First Maryland Cavalry C S A was formed in May 1862 of veterans of the Howard County Maryland Dragoons and the First Virginia Cavalry The Marylanders saw action at Brandy Station Gettysburg Winchester and Cedar Creek The participated in Gen Jubal Early s raid on Washington aided in Gen John McCausland s burning of Chambersburg and acted as rear guard for Lee s Army of Northern Virginia on the way to Appomattox Davis s Battalion of Maryland Cavalry was organized in 1863 The men spent the winter scouting and on outpost duty in the Shenandoah Valley then saw action at New Market Piedmont Buford s Gap and Winchester Davis was wounded and captured during the last battle and the remnants of his unit then served with the First and Second Maryland Cavalry until the end of the way The Second Maryland Cavalry C S A was organized by Harry W Gilmor of Baltimore in May 1863 The unit served in the Shenandoah Valley and led Early s advance on Washington When Gilmor was seirously wounded and later captured his men continued to serve the Confederacy as scouts Back cover States at War, Volume 4 Richard F. Miller, 2015-02-03 While many Civil War reference books exist there is no single compendium that contains important details about the combatant states and territories that Civil War researchers can readily access for their work People looking for information about the organizations activities economies demographics and prominent personalities of Civil War States and state governments must assemble data from a variety of sources with many key sources remaining unavailable online This crucial reference book the fourth in the States at War series provides vital information on the organization activities economies demographics and prominent personalities of Delaware Maryland and New Jersey during the Civil War Its principal sources include the Official Records state adjutant general reports legislative journals state and federal legislation federal and state executive speeches and proclamations and the general and special orders issued by the military authorities of both governments North and South Designed and organized for easy use by professional historians and amateurs this book can be read in two ways by individual state with each chapter offering a stand alone history of an individual state s war years or across states comparing reactions to the same event or solutions to the same problems Maryland's Blue and Gray: A Border State's Union and Confederate Junior Officer Corps Kevin Conley Ruffner, 1997 The Johnson-Gilmor Cavalry Raid Around Baltimore Eric J. Wittenberg, 2025-02-28 The Johnson Gilmor Raid a gripping tale of desperation and high stakes during the American Civil War unveils the doomed attempt to free Confederate prisoners of war shedding light on the intricacies of wartime strategies and the relentless pursuit of liberty The Johnson Gilmor Raid represents one of three major attempts to free prisoners of war during the American Civil War Like the other two it was destined to fail for a variety of reasons mostly because the timetable for the operation was a schedule impossible to meet The mounted raid was a fascinating act of increasing desperation by the Confederate high command in the summer of 1864 and award winning cavalry historian Eric J Wittenberg presents the gripping story in detail for the first time in The Johnson Gilmor Cavalry Raid

Around Baltimore July 10 13 1864 the fourth book in the bestselling Battles Leaders Series The thundering high stakes operation was intended to free the suffering of 15 000 Confederate prisoners held at Point Lookout Maryland a peninsula at the confluence of the Potomac River and the Chesapeake Bay The operation consisted of two mounted columns one under Bradley Johnson and a second smaller one under Harry Gilmer Each had different objectives The former would move directly on Point Lookout while the other destroyed bridges and created other mischief to tie up enemy forces The wild plot initially envisioned launching a simultaneous naval strike which went awry at the 11th hour Success would have released thousands of men behind enemy lines created significant chaos and with a little more luck returned veterans into the fighting ranks The fast paced July 1864 drama has never been told in such depth and with such precision Wittenberg draws upon a wide variety of sources to do so including contemporary newspapers Part of his analysis compares and contrasts this raid to a pair of other unsuccessful attempts to free Union prisoners of war the Kilpatrick Dahlgren Raid of February March 1864 and the Stoneman Raid on Macon Georgia of July 1864 as well as Gen George S Patton s attempt to free his son in law and other American prisoners in March of 1945 The Johnson Gilmer Cavalry Raid Around Baltimore will be welcomed by anyone with an interest in the Civil War high stakes cavalry operations or the politics of Civil War high command Confederate

Military History Clement Anselm Evans,1899 Confederate Military History - Maryland Brig. Gen. Bradley T. Johnson,2017-03-06 The writer of the following sketch does not attempt in the space assigned him to give a complete history of the various commands of Maryland who for four year did gallant and noble service A faithful record of their names alone would fill the pages of a volume and to write a history of their marches and battles their wounds and suffering their willing sacrifices would demand more accurate knowledge more time and more ability than the author of this sketch can command He trusts that in this brief history which follows he has been able to show that Maryland did her duty to herself and did it nobly Gen Bradley T Johnson the gallant organizer and leader of the Maryland Line distinguished in many of the battles of the army of Virginia one of the most brilliant regimental and brigade commanders under Stonewall Jackson and Robert E Lee and for a time in command of division is the author of the military history of Maryland Stonewall's Prussian Mapmaker Oscar Hinrichs,2014 Stonewall s Prussian Mapmaker The Journals of Captain Oscar Hinrichs The Green Spring Valley Dawn F. Thomas,1978 Eleanor'S Pursuit H. Thomas Howell,2014-12-01 When Eleanor Pendleton met Louis M Ream in 1911 it was love at first sight She was a Broadway actress known for her beauty and dancing ability in musical comedy productions during the early twentieth century Louis was tall dark and handsome and as she soon discovered the youngest son and presumptive heir of Norman B Ream one of Americas wealthiest men The problem for Eleanor as she learned after eloping with Louis was her father in laws deep seated aversion to the theatre he regarded all actresses as disreputable After an overnight trip to seek his fathers forgiveness and understanding Louis disappeared A blend of history and melodrama H Thomas Howells Eleanors Pursuit offers the biographical legacy of Eleanor Pendleton It looks beneath the sensational newspaper coverage of 1911 to explore the confrontation between father and son and Eleanors anxious vigil while awaiting the return of her husband When Reams lawyer arrives at her apartment instead of Louis and informs her the marriage is over Eleanor collapses in disbelief The lawyers take center stage displacing the lovers Chronicling one of the biggest celebrity newspaper stories of its day Eleanors Pursuit follows the secret deal making sessions the stage managed travesty of justice and the ultimate courtroom battle These events come to life as the witnesses and lawyers reveal the private details in their own words Howell also tells how the public reacted to the story as it unfolded With surprises at every turn this biography explains the exceptional final stage of Eleanors pursuit The Maryland Line in the Confederate Army, 1861-1865 William Worthington Goldsborough, 1900 A Maryland Boy in Lee's Army George Wilson Booth, 2000-01-01 A young boy who served in the Army of Virginia under Jackson Ewell and Early before being promoted to captain recalls the early successes at both Manassas battles the later days at Gettysburg and the burning of Chambersburg Trevilian Station, June 11-12, 1864 Joseph W. McKinney, 2016-02-18 In June 1864 General Ulysses Grant ordered his cavalry commander Philip Sheridan to conduct a raid to destroy the Virginia Central Railroad between Charlottesville and Richmond Sheridan fell short of his objective when he was defeated by General Wade Hampton s cavalry in a two day battle at Trevilian Station The first day s fighting saw dismounted Yankees and Rebels engaged at close range in dense forest By day s end Hampton had withdrawn to the west Advancing the next morning Sheridan found Hampton dug in behind hastily built fortifications and launched seven dismounted assaults each repulsed with heavy casualties As darkness fell the Confederates counterattacked driving the Union forces from the field Sheridan began his withdrawal that night an ordeal for his men the Union wounded and Confederate prisoners brought off the field and the hundreds of starved and exhausted horses that marked his retreat killed to prevent their falling into Confederate hands Confederate Military History Clement A. Evans, 2004-06 This is one volume in a library of Confederate States history in twelve volumes written by distinguished men of the South and edited by Gen Clement A Evans of Georgia A generation after the Civil War the Southern protagonists wanted to tell their story and in 1899 these twelve volumes appeared under the imprint of the Confederate Publishing Company The first and last volumes comprise such subjects as the justification of the Southern States in seceding from the Union and the honorable conduct of the war by the Confederate States government the history of the actions and concessions of the South in the formation of the Union and its policy in securing the territorial dominion of the United States the civil history of the Confederate States Confederate naval history the morale of the armies the South since the war and a connected outline of events from the beginning of the struggle to its close The other ten volumes each treat a separate State with details concerning its peculiar story its own devotion its heroes and its battlefields Volume 2 is Maryland and West Virginia Lee's Bold Plan for Point Lookout Jack E. Schairer, 2014-11-29 In July 1864 while hemmed in by Grant at Richmond General Robert E Lee conceived a bold plan designed not only to relieve Lynchburg and protect the Confederate supply line but also to ultimately make a bold move on Washington itself A major facet of this plan with the addition of General Jubal Early's forces became the rescue of the almost 15 000 Confederate prisoners at Point Lookout a large Union prison camp at the confluence of the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay With international recognition hanging in the balance for the Confederacy the failure of Lee's plan saved the Union and ultimately changed the course of the war This work focuses on the many factors that contributed to this eventual failure including Early's somewhat inexplicable hesitancy a significant loss of time for Confederate troops en route and aggressive defensive action by Union General Lew Wallace It also discusses various circumstances such as Washington's stripped defenses the potential release of imprisoned Southern troops and a breakdown of Union military intelligence that made Lee's gamble a brilliant well founded strategy Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout, 2008 Until recently it has been difficult for anyone with an interest in the Army of Northern Virginia's horse artillery which served under legendary cavalry commander J E B Stuart to envision what the men of the battalion endured With the publication in 2002 of Robert Trout's seminal book Gallop Thunder The Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion the endeavors of the unit were rescued from obscurity In Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Trout provides readers with complete versions of three important primary documents written by soldiers of the battalion Lt Lewis T Nunnelee's history of Moorman's Battery is based on a seven volume diary that Nunnelee kept during the war and features near daily entries of the battery's actions The History of Hart's Battery as told by Maj James F Hart Dr Levi C Stephens Louis Sherfese and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it a cannon of a different caliber It recounts in broader terms the battery's history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield Finally Louis Sherfese's Reminiscences of A Color Bearer fleshes out many of the stories in the history that he co wrote with Hart and his fellow soldiers Filled with short vignettes it offers a behind the scenes look at the battery in action Together these rich documents provide welcome insights into the day to day experiences of the often overlooked Confederate horse artillery which played an important role in cementing Stuart's reputation as one of the most outstanding cavalry commanders in the Civil War Book Jacket The Cavalry at Appomattox Edward G. Longacre, 2003 The final campaign of the American Civil War in the eastern theatre witnessed the zenith of American cavalry warfare the salient aspect of the operation The Appomattox Campaign not only determined whether the conflict would continue but also which army had better assimilated the intricate difficult lessons of mounted service The outcome indicated why the Union troopers emerged victorious They displayed greater tactical versatility the ability to fight mounted and afoot whereas the Confederate horsemen considered the outdated saber charge the essence of mounted battle Confederate Military History: Maryland Clement Anselm Evans, 1899 In v 1 11 each state has at end a Biographical section Additional sketches illustrating the services of officers and privates and patriotic citizens are appended in v 2 Maryland p 185 447 West Virginia p 139 296 in v 3 Virginia p 693 1295 in v 4 North Carolina p 355 813 in v 5 South Carolina p 425 931 1 Curry J L M
