NA,2016-01-03 The Rock Rabbit and the Rainbow Laurens Van der Post,1998 Sir Laurens van der Post author film maker storyteller of world wide renown soldier prisoner of war political advisor to heads of state humanitarian explorer conservationist the list goes on and on His extraordinary curiosity his love for the small and the great and his tremendous feeling and concern for his surroundings and all that they included set him travelling the lands and the waters of the world a messenger in search of meaning He touched and inspired many along the way some of whom are to be found in the pages of this book A true man of his time Sir Laurens was born in 1906 in the interior of South Africa served in the British forces during World War II including three and a half years in Japanese captivity and lived and worked since that time in London where he died just after celebrating his 90th birthday in December 1996 The Rock Rabbit and The Rainbow was originally conceived as a Festschrift or gift collection of writings for Sir Laurens by several of his friends and then evolved into its present form which includes numerous original contributions by Sir Laurens himself Regarding Muslims Gabeba Baderoon,2014-06-01 An analysis of the role of Muslims from South Africa s founding to the present and points to the resonance of these discussions beyond South Africa How do Muslims fit into South Africa s well known narrative of colonialism apartheid and post apartheid South Africa is infamous for apartheid but the country s foundation was laid by 176 years of slavery from 1658 to 1834 which formed a crucible of war genocide and systemic sexual violence that continues to haunt the country today Enslaved people from East Africa India and South East Asia many of whom were Muslim would eventually constitute the majority of the population of the Cape Colony the first of the colonial territories that would eventually form South Africa Drawing on an extensive popular and official archive Regarding Muslims analyses the role of Muslims from South Africa s founding moments to the contemporary period and points to the resonance of these discussions beyond South Africa It argues that the 350 year archive of images documenting the presence of Muslims in South Africa is central to understanding the formation of concepts of race sexuality and belonging In contrast to the themes of extremism and alienation that dominate Western portrayals of Muslims Regarding Muslims explores an extensive repertoire of picturesque Muslim figures in South African popular culture which oscillates with more disquieting images that occasionally burst into prominence during moments of crisis This pattern is illustrated through analyses of etymology popular culture visual art jokes bodily practices oral narratives and literature The book ends with the complex vision of Islam conveyed in the post apartheid period
