Excerpt: long sacrifice and bestow upon you the balm of heavenly joy but knowing that every perfect gift cometh from above and that in God is all consolation and comfort we rest in this satisfying assurance while we thank you and renew the story of our love for you and for all that you are and all that you have done for us. William B. Johnson, Clerk. By means of a carefully trained corps of ushers numbering two hundred there was no confusion in finding seats and when all seating space had been filled no more were admitted until the next service. The church was filled for each service in about twenty minutes and was emptied in twelve in spite of the fact that many of the visitors showed a tendency to tarry to examine the church. It was children's day at noon for the service at half past twelve was specially reserved for them. They filled all the seats in the body of the church and when it came to the singing the little ones were not a whit behind their elders, their shrill trebles rising with the roll of the organ in almost perfect time. In every respect their service was the same as all the others. There was no more impressive feature of the dedication than the silent communion. Devout Scientists said after the service that they would ever carry with them the memory of it. THE ANNUAL MEETING, JUNE 12, 1906. The annual meeting of The First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston was held in the extension of The Mother Church Tuesday, June 12, at ten o'clock in the forenoon and in order to accommodate those who could not gain admittance at that hour a second session was held at two o'clock in the afternoon. The meeting was opened by the President, Rev. William P. McKenzie, who read from the Bible and Science and Health as follows:      The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany Mary Baker Eddy, 1913      The First Church of Christ Scientist and Miscellany (Classic Reprint) Mary Baker Eddy, 2017-09-16 Excerpt from The First Church of Christ Scientist and Miscellany: Strive it ever so hard. The Church of Christ Scientist 3 can never do for its Leader what its Leader has done for this church but its members can so protect their own thoughts that they are not unwittingly made to deprive their Leader of her rightful place as the revelator to this age of the immortal truths testified to by Jesus and the prophets.
