1 Corinth 15:1-11 - Facts of Christ's Resurrection

- Authorization to those that would follow?
  - After that He was seen by James then by all the apostles.
    - James was one of the brothers of Jesus, Thomas would ultimately be included.
- 1 Corinth 15:8-11 – “Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.”

Commentary on the First Epistle to the Corinthians F.W. Grosheide, 2019-04-16 New in the Eerdmans Classic Biblical Commentaries collection This classic commentary by F W Grosheide on 1 Corinthians unpacks Paul's letter to the first century Corinthian church and applies his teachings to our own situation with vigor and understanding. The volume throughout exhibits Grosheide's fairness to the views of others and his single-mindedness to expound fully the inspired text. Originally published in 1953 as part of the New International Commentary on the New Testament series, Grosheide's Commentary on the First Epistle to the Corinthians in this new format will continue helping pastors, teachers, students, and other Bible readers grasp the aim and major themes of Paul's first Corinthian letter.

The First Epistle to the Corinthians Anthony C. Thiselton, 2000. A new examination of a classic Christian text begins with the Greek text of the Corinthians and outlines the most important theological, ethical, and socio-historical issues surrounding this seminal book.

Exposition of the First Epistle to the Corinthians Simon J. Kistemaker, 1993. Begun by William Hendriksen, Baker's New Testament Commentary has earned the acclaim and respect of Reformed and evangelical scholars and pastors. Since Hendriksen's death in 1982, the series has been continued by Simon J. Kistemaker. Four of the volumes compiled by Kistemaker earned the Gold Medallion Award: Hebrews, James, and 1 & 2 John, Acts, and 1 Corinthians. The series was completed in 2001 with the publication of Revelation. This award-winning series from Baker Academic is currently the only available commentary from a Reformed perspective that covers the entire New Testament.

A Commentary on the First Epistle to the Corinthians Charles Kingsley Barrett, 1968. This is another volume in the distinguished series HARPER'S NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARIES. Professor Barrett's new contribution to the series will be particularly welcomed because of the scarcity of material on the First Epistle to the Corinthians. The author describes in his Introduction the situation in Corinth, the relations between Paul and the Corinthian Church, the authenticity and integrity of the Epistle, and its contribution to the development of theology and to our knowledge of the early Church. In the commentary, he fully interprets each passage of the Epistle and its message. Professor Barrett has provided his own translation of the text to complement his commentary and express as accurately and as clearly as possible what Paul said. It is his conviction that the Church today needs to discover the apostolic Gospel and through 1 Corinthians the relation between this Gospel and its order, discipline, worship, and ethics.
