The Big Hop David Rooney, 2025-06-03 The inspiring story of a pathbreaking 1919 flight and the courageous fliers who risked their lives to make aviation history In 1919 in Newfoundland four teams of aviators came from Britain to compete in the Big Hop an audacious race to be the first to fly nonstop across the Atlantic Ocean One pair of competitors was forced to abandon the journey halfway and two pairs never made it into the air Only one team after a death defying sixteen hour flight made it to Ireland Celebrated on both continents the transatlantic contest offered a surge of inspiration and a welcome distraction to a public reeling from the Great War and the influenza pandemic But the seven airmen who made the attempt were quickly forgotten their achievement overshadowed by the solo Atlantic flights of Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart years later In The Big Hop David Rooney grants the pioneering aviators of 1919 the spotlight they deserve From Harry Hawker the pilot who as a young man had watched Houdini fly over his native Australia to the engineer Ted Brown a US citizen who joined the Royal Flying Corps Rooney traces the lives of the unassuming men who performed extraordinary acts in the sky Mining evocative first person accounts and aviation archives Rooney also follows the participants journeys learning to fly on flimsy airplanes made of timber struts and varnished fabric surviving the bloodiest war that Europe had ever yet seen and battling faulty coolant systems severe storms and extreme fatigue while attempting the Atlantic

Pan Am Don Harris, 2011 Pan Am a name synonymous with glitch glamour financial misfortune. For a period of time it was the face of the sky. It was the aircraft that brought the Beatles to America and was the airliner Stanley Kubrick had in mind when he filmed the movie 2001 A Space Odyssey. Its airplanes logo and company have appeared in movies as diverse as Blade Runner to National Lampoon's European Vacation. In the Fall of 2011 it was the basis of the ABC drama Pan Am starring Christina Ricci. In many ways the story of Pan Am is the story of America as the company itself became the representation to the world of America. The story includes monopolies and betrayals innovation and competition first class service and terrible losses. The US government aided the company at its outset and then turned its back on it at its end. Pan Am's demise was tragic as international forces beyond its control led to a series of mistakes mismanagement and bad investments that eventually brought it under. In this in depth essay author Don Harris tells the story of the rise and fall of the most famous airline in the world.

Birdmen Lawrence Goldstone, 2015-04-21 From acclaimed historian Lawrence Goldstone comes a thrilling narrative of courage determination and competition the story of the intense rivalry that fueled the rise of American aviation. The feud between this nation's great air pioneers the Wright brothers and Glenn Curtiss was a collision of unyielding and profoundly American personalities. On one side a pair of tenacious siblings who together had solved the centuries old riddle of powered heavier than air flight. On the other an audacious motorcycle racer whose innovative aircraft became synonymous in the public mind with death defying stunts. For more than a decade they battled each other in court at air shows and in the newspapers. The outcome of this contest of wills would shape the course of aviation history and take a fearsome toll on the men involved Birdmen sets the engrossing story of the Wrights war with Curtiss against the thrilling backdrop of the early years of manned flight and is rich with period detail and larger than life personalities Thomas Scott Baldwin or Cap t Tom as he styled himself who invented the parachute and almost convinced the world that balloons were the future of aviation John Moisant the dapper daredevil who took to the skies after three failed attempts to overthrow the government of El Salvador then quickly emerged as a celebrity flyer and Harriet Quimby the statuesque silent film beauty who became the first woman to fly across the English Channel And then there is Lincoln Beachey perhaps the greatest aviator who ever lived who dazzled crowds with an array of trademark twists and dives and best embodied the romance with death that fueled so many of aviation s earliest heroes A dramatic story of unimaginable bravery in the air and brutal competition on the ground Birdmen is at once a thrill ride through flight s wild early years and a surprising look at the personal clash that fueled America s race to the skies Praise for Birdmen A meticulously researched account of the first few hectic tangled years of aviation and the curious characters who pursued it a worthy companion to Richard Holmes s marvelous history of ballooning Falling Upwards Time The daredevil scientists and engineers who forged the field of aeronautics spring vividly to life in Lawrence Goldstone s history Nature The history of the development of an integral part of the modern world and a fascinating portrayal of how a group of men and women achieved a dream that had captivated humanity for centuries The Christian Science Monitor Captivating and wonderfully presented a fine book about these rival pioneers The Wall Street Journal A vivid story of invention vendettas derring do media hype and patent fights with modern resonance Financial Times A powerful story that contrasts soaring hopes with the anchors of ego and courtroom Kirkus Reviews A riveting narrative about the pioneering era of aeronautics in America and beyond Goldstone raises questions of enduring importance regarding innovation and the indefinite exertion of control over ideas that go public Publishers Weekly starred review Federal Aviation Agency Historical Fact Book; a Chronology, 1926-1963 Arnold E.
