Fish That Couldn't Swim Elizabeth R. Sedat, Lorraine O. Schultz, 1987-01-01 A Strange Fish Swimming in a Foreign Sea Adrienne Nash, 2024-08-16 Sierra Leone prior to and post Independence in the early 1960s seemed a place of tranquillity to Tim May just twenty one years old He and his companions worked and played hard but Tim was labelled a failure in Freetown in work and in health and as his manager Mr Enk said I m sending you to manage Port Loko branch you will bloody well sink or swim It was the time honoured treatment of a failure in the old Empire Management was a daunting prospect especially without a knowledge of Bank accounting but Tim faces the future with fatalistic hope Immature and wracked by personal problems the prospect is bleak particularly dealing with the wily cunning mostly Lebanese customers who grubbed a living thousands of miles from their nation s internecine wars It is not only the customers Tim has to combat but the climate diseases and general ill health and his mental state a strange fish in a foreign sea It seemed the bugs and creatures the customers his fellow expatriates and most of all his real persona all combined to defeat him Tim though is a strong fish swimming amongst predators and escapes to fight other The Christian Advocate ,1912 Mission Possible Nancy Hastings, 2023-01-24 Mission Possible is the story of two ambitious young Americans convinced God has called them to share the good news of the gospel in South America The couple George and Alice and their young son Phillip embark on the unknown in the early 1950s as they are given the plans for their mission work in the Presbyterian East Mission of Brazil After a brief time serving a church in Tennessee as a newly graduated seminary student George is ready to fulfill his dream of serving abroad Alice is excited to embark on this adventure in a land where she and her husband can bring a sense of hope to many while grappling with a new life and a growing family Their limitations and naivete are compounded with perils of the jungle along with the endless physical language and cultural differences encountered Though often weary both remain yielded to whatever means the Lord uses to train and equip them Every part of their life goes beyond all the boundaries of their imagination as it is woven into a colorful tapestry sometimes torn but always repaired Their amazing adventure is fundamentally based on a real life story Quarterly Paper of the Oxford Mission to Calcutta Oxford Mission to Calcutta, 1938 Proceedings of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and Its Departments Church of the Nazarene. General Board, 1985 Go and Do John Perkins, Shane Blackshear, 2022-01-14 Shane had the privilege of meeting his long time hero civil rights leader and minister John Perkins Little did he know that we would form a friendship and John would become a mentor Over a series of years they had numerous conversations as Shane wanted to know from John what leading a life faithful to Jesus Christ actually looks like What followed was a series of vulnerable and heartfelt conversations between John and Shane and their reflections on those conversations John s words and advice are distilled into nine axioms for peacemaking and transformation They're Rugby Boys, Don't You Know? Natalie Vellacott, 2014-10-22 A true story detailing how a Christian Police Sergeant from England boarded the Logos Hope

Missionary Ship in 2011 and was forever changed when in the Philippines she unexpectedly encountered and fell in love with a group of street teenage boys addicted to a solvent called rugby. The book details the highlights and lowlights ups and downs trials and tribulations successes and failures of the Logos Hope crew as they defied local attitudes to slowly and carefully befriend this sidelined and often detested minority. You will read of hospital visitations breaches of trust criminal activity gang fights and numerous disappointments but ultimately you will read of the changes in the lives of just a few of the boys who decided to leave the street and the solvents for better future lives. It goes without saying that these small changes made the heartache and struggles worthwhile. A true story of Christian hope being brought to the hopeless in the Philippines. As I approached the bridge leading back to the Logos Hope ship I saw a lone figure standing in the shadows watching the people walking past. He was unsteady on his feet and rocking backwards and forwards holding a plastic bag in his hand. As I moved nearer I saw it was Mark. He ran away when he saw me and tried to hide but didn't get very far and so he sat on the ground behind a large pillar in the shadows breathing heavily. I sat beside him on the ground which was dirty and really stank and when I put my arm around his shoulders I smelt the intoxicatingly strong smell of the solvent. The boys had recently stopped taking rugby and had moved on to a door sealant called Vuca Seal which was stronger. It was all over him and he reeked of it. I covered my nose. I remember this was the only time where the thought ran through my mind that I could see how addiction to this smell was created because it was really intoxicating. I knew I needed to be careful not to breathe much of it in but Mark was really very high. He was vacant and staring ahead and then he began crying again as I tried to talk to him. I asked him why he was doing this to himself and what was it that had made him so unhappy but he didn't answer. Mark got up and stumbled away as I watched him go. I followed and tried to talk to him again sharing a bit of my life before I became a Christian and how miserable I had been. His hopelessness reminded me of my old life when I was immersed in drink gambling and meaningless relationships. I knew Mark was listening as I shared the hope that I had found in Jesus with him but he didn't respond. Eventually I had to leave him alone and staring vacantly ahead of himself hanging over a railing I was really worried that he wouldn't make it through the night if he took any more solvents.

The Christian Work and the Evangelist, 1903 The Boy Scouts' Year Book, 1920 The Boy Scouts Year Book Franklin K. Mathiews, 1920 Northwestern Christian Advocate, 1916 The Story of Grenfell of the Labrador Dillon Wallace, 2025-04-29 The Story of Grenfell of the Labrador by Dillon Wallace chronicles the heroic journey of Sir Wilfred Grenfell a British physician and missionary whose dedication to isolated Labrador communities left an indelible mark on Canadian history. Through tales of perilous dog sled journeys and improvised medical care in extreme conditions the book captures an era where medicine met polar adventure. Grenfell founder of medical and educational missions emerges as a pivotal figure in Christian humanitarianism combating poverty and epidemics in the Far North. Wallace himself an explorer and writer blends firsthand accounts with historical analysis to highlight the impact of Grenfell's floating hospitals and schools. The narrative also addresses the logistical challenges of Arctic expeditions and collaborations with Indigenous communities offering a window into early 20th century socio cultural dynamics Ideal for fans of adventurer biographies and medical history this work stands alongside classic polar exploration tales while shedding light on a lesser known chapter of international humanitarianism Mission Life; Or Home and Foreign Church Work ,1873 Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1912-07 The Watchman-examiner ,1929 The Christian Union ,1885 My Fighting Congregation: An Army Chaplain in the Pacific Chaplain William C. Taggart,Christopher Cross,2019-08-11 My Fighting Congregation is the World War 2 combat diary of U S Army Chaplain William Taggart His book details his work with servicemen aboard US ships in the Pacific and the work he performed alongside Allied troops fighting on Java and stationed in Australia My Fighting Congregation is both an important historical document and an inspirational story of the valuable services performed by the US Army s Chaplain Service during World War II Youth's Companion ,1894 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1885
