Economic Interdependence In Southern Africa From Conflict To Cooperation:

Economic Interdependence in Southern Africa Jesmond Blumenfeld,1991 A study of the main features of economic interdependence in Southern Africa reconsidering the politics of mutual dependence and examining the pressures for sanctions on one side and destabilization on the other as well as the countervailing pressures for continuing co operation

South Africa's Destabilisation of Zimbabwe, 1980-89 J. Dzimba,1998-01-01 South Africa s Apartheid regime saw Zimbabwean independence and black majority rule in 1980 as a major threat to its interests security and regional hegemony John Dzimba explains how and why Pretoria sought to destabilise Zimbabwe and other front line states examining the successes and failures of destabilisation against Zimbabwe s economic and political vulnerabilities and attempted responses He shows why P W Botha s crisis ridden regime had to drop the policy in 1989

Regionalization and Security in Southern Africa N. Poku,2001-02-02 Once torn by ideological conflicts and the dominance of command economies Southern Africa is now moving towards economic liberalism and openness In general the ascendancy of market economics is acknowledged by its governments albeit with different degrees of enthusiasm Theoretically rich and empirically engaging this timely book offers a critical insight into the ensuing debate on regionalism and the process of regionalization in southern Africa

Understanding World Order and Structural Change H. Abrahamsson,2015-12-22 Hans Abrahamsson assesses the current world order and structural change within an historical framework He analyzes the interaction of Pax American and the Bretton Woods system in the postwar period and its impact specifically on the development of Southern Africa The author also proposed an analytical model and a methodological framework for the study of the international political economy and its global and local implications Finally he addresses the circumstances behind the current opportunity for global change and the social forces and political action required in order to seize it

Regional Blocs A.S. Bhalla,2016-07-27 A topical study of regional arrangements covering ASEAN SAARC and APEC in Asia NAFTA and MERCOSUR in the Americas SADC SACU and ECOWAS in Africa and the European Union EFTA and Eastern Europe The book argues that foreign direct investment is complementary to trade and most regional arrangements can create trade and induce growth so long as they remain open and non discriminatory But they could also become stumbling blocks to globalization The book demonstrates how US and EU trade policy will be crucial in shaping the world economy

African International Relations Mark W. DeLancey,2019-03-13 African International Relations is a thoroughly revised and updated bibliography that contains annotated entries for international books and journal articles in the field of African international relations

International Bibliography of Economics British Library of Political and Economic Science,1993 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences

Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs,1993 From Rhodesia to Zimbabwe W.H. Morris-Jones,2013-12-19 First published in 1980 The aim of this collection of articles is to furnish information and perspective on the main economic and political elements present in the making of Zimbabwe Although the articles were prepared before the conclusion of the Lancaster House negotiations they discuss matters which must be central to the future of this important newly independent state of Southern Africa Border Conflicts Michael Davis,AI,2025-03-21 Border Conflicts explores the enduring significance of territorial disputes in shaping international relations and national identities The book examines how lines on a map become deeply intertwined with a nation s sense of self often rooted in historical grievances and political maneuvering Many current border conflicts stem from the legacy of colonialism where arbitrary divisions disregarded existing cultural and ethnic boundaries These divisions created lasting tensions over resources influence and sovereignty making them worth fighting for and shaping today s geopolitics The book adopts a structured approach beginning with fundamental concepts such as territoriality and nationalism It then delves into specific historical and contemporary border conflicts across Europe Africa Asia and the Americas illustrating the diverse factors at play By synthesizing these case studies Border Conflicts identifies common patterns and underlying drivers such as ethnic conflicts and power imbalances Ultimately the work proposes potential solutions and strategies for conflict resolution emphasizing diplomacy and international law to offer practical insights into the complexities of international relations □□□□□□□□ ,1992-07 Nuclear Weapons Free Zones

Exequiel Lacovsky,2021-03-08 This book explores the conditions under which Nuclear Weapons Free Zones NWFZs can be established It analyzes four hypotheses that explain the factors contributing to the formation of NWFZs building upon realist constructivist and liberal theories from international relations Through structured focused comparison the book presents and compares the emergence of NWFZs in Latin America the South Pacific Southeast Asia Africa Central Asia and the Middle East which is a prospect for a NWFZ The book argues that NWFZ projects depend on the following conditions the security interest of regional states in avoiding nuclear threats preexisting regional institutions and regional economic cooperation leadership by a core of regional powers and shared interest in spreading non proliferation norms Democracy is not a necessary condition but democratization can help overcome barriers presented by hesitant or opposed regional governments As too many of the mentioned necessary conditions are lacking in the Middle East a NWFZ project thus will be possible only after major political changes This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation arms control security studies and International Relations
