Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel, Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, 2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region s widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represen

Fortress Europe? Annette Jünemann, Nikolas Scherer, Nicolas Fromm, 2017-03-16 An unprecedented number of people is currently on the move seeking refuge in Europe Large parts of European societies respond with anxiety and mistrust to the influx of people Nationalist anti migrant parties from Slovakia over Germany to the UK have gained increasing support among the electorate and challenge the political mainstream Europe is struggling how to respond While the search for solutions is ongoing one pattern seems to be emerging Fortress Europe is in the making Unfortunately few of these discussions and measures consider the structural root causes and dynamics of migration the motives of migrants or societal challenges more thoroughly This book seeks to address this deficit Taking migration and asylum policies as a starting point it analyses the various dimensions underpinning migration In doing so it identifies why receiving countries are in many ways part of the problem To eschew an overtly Euro centric perspective and stimulate a debate between science and politics it contains contributions by academics and practitioners alike from both shores of the Mediterranean

Making the Arab World Fawaz A. Gerges, 2018-04-03 How the conflict between political Islamists and secular leaning nationalists has shaped the history of the modern Middle East In 2013 just two years after the popular overthrow of Hosni Mubarak the Egyptian military ousted the country's first democratically elected president Mohamed Morsi of the Muslim Brotherhood and subsequently led a brutal repression of the Islamist group These bloody events echoed an older political rift in Egypt and the Middle East the splitting of nationalists and Islamists during the rule of Egyptian president and Arab nationalist leader Gamal Abdel Nasser In Making the Arab World Fawaz Gerges one of the world's leading authorities on the Middle East tells how the clash between pan Arab nationalism and pan Islamism has shaped the history of the region from the 1920s to the present Gerges tells this story through an unprecedented dual biography of Nasser and another of the twentieth century Arab world's most influential figures Sayyid Qutb a leading member of the Muslim Brotherhood and the father of many branches of radical political Islam Their deeply intertwined lives embody and dramatize the divide between Arabism and Islamism Yet as Gerges shows beyond the ideological and existential rhetoric this is a struggle over the state its role and its power Based on a decade of research including in depth interviews with many leading figures in the story Making the Arab World is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the roots of the turmoil engulfing the Middle East from civil wars to the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS Cumulative Index of Congressional Committee Hearings (not Confidential in Character).
