

Introduction to Economics Study Guide

- Define economics. Explain how economics applies to the real world.

Economics tells us how to make the best use of our scarce resources and is usually divided into two categories: Microeconomics and macroeconomics.

 - Positive economics is objective and fact-based, while normative economics is subjective and value-based. Positive economic statements do not have to be correct, but they must be able to be tested and proved or disproved. Normative economic statements are opinion based, so they cannot be proved or disproved.
