local community interests The volume takes readers along an unusual trajectory between a disadvantaged neighborhood in central Beijing metropolitan centers in Anhui and Sichuan Quanzhou in the southeast and Yunnan in the southwest before finally ending at the great Samye Monastery in Tibet Across these sites the contributors converge in apprehending the grassroots as an arena of everyday life and belonging underpinning ordinary social interactions and cultural practices as diverse as funeral rituals Tibetan Buddhist pilgrimages and encounters between young contemporary artists and the Bloomsbury Group In examining the diversity of local cultural practices and knowledge that underpin ideas about cultural value this volume argues that grassroots cultural beliefs are essential to the liveability and sustainability of life and living heritage European Fans in the 17th and 18th Centuries Miriam Volmert,Danijela Bucher,2019-12-02 In 17th and 18th century Europe folding fans were important socially coded fashion accessories In the course of the 18th century painted and printed fan leaves displayed an increasing variety of visual motifs and artistic subject matter while many of them also addressed contemporary political and social topics This book studies the visual and material diversity of fans from an interdisciplinary perspective The individual essays analyze fans in the context of the fine and applied arts discussing the role of fans in cultures of communication and examining them as souvenir objects and vehicles for political and social messages
