Wolfgang Guggemos

Fantasia On Greensleeves O 102 Viola:

The Works of Ralph Vaughan Williams Michael Kennedy, 1964 For this comprehensive account of Vaughan Williams's musical career the author has had unrestricted access to the composer's private papers This book includes many letters which illuminate Vaughan Williams's intentions and contains quotations from his writings and from contemporary reactions to his music over nearly sixty years Besides the straightforward narrative of a full and busy life of music there is a critical commentary on the works themselves Special importance is attached to the authoritative catalogue of works which forms the first appendix All known published and unpublished works are listed here with full details of instrumentation revisions and first performances Particular attention has been given to accuracy of dates All the composer's own programme notes are reprinted For the first time it is possible to have a full picture of Vaughan Williams's creative activities before 1905 as well as of his career after he became firmly established Book jacket A Catalogue of the Works of Ralph Vaughan Williams

Michael Kennedy, 1982 This catalog was originally published in 1964 as part of Michael Kennedy's The Works of Ralph Vaughan Williams Now published separately with minor revisions and corrections to the main catalogue of musical works and to the bibliography of Vaughan Williams's prose writings this work also includes a list of folksongs from the original volume

The Chesterian, 1934 The Catalogue of Printed Music in the British Library to 1980 British Library. Department of Printed Books, British Library, Robert Balchin, 1981 Gramophone, 2008 Felix Aprahamian Felix Aprahamian, 2015 A picture of a highly creative music critic notable for his humane commentary as well as his promotion of contemporary French and British music The music critic Felix Aprahamian 1914 2005 was a remarkable self-made man whose enormous influence in musical circles was deeply founded in his practical experience of promoting music in London notably British and French composers Early on he became interested in the organ and was soon corresponding with the leading French names of the day Andr Marchal Charles Tournemire Maurice Durufl and the young Olivier Messiaen In 1933 the nineteen year old Aprahamian visited Frederick Delius in France and while in Paris met the aged Charles Marie Widor The surviving diaries published here complete for the first time document these events in detail During the Second World War he acted as concert director of the London Philharmonic Orchestra was the guiding spirit behind the influential Concerts de Musique Fran aise and became assistant to Sir Thomas Beecham After the liberation of Paris a wide circle of outstanding French musicians and composers including Francis Poulenc Messiaen Pierre Bernac and Pierre Fournier became personal friends Aprahamian made his name as music critic on The Sunday Times where from 1948 to 1989 he was required reading He helped numerous young musicians to develop their careers and was associated with many musical organizations notably the Delius Trust and Society Prefaced by an illuminating biography this collection sheds new light on Aprahamian's life and work His diaries and BBC broadcasts uniquely illuminate London concert life from the 1930s to the 1960s while his articles on many composers and musicians nearly all friends and colleagues testify to his promotion of French and British music Examples of his record and concert reviews are included and the book evokes the almost vanished world of a music criticism both humane and strict paying tribute to music's spontaneous and absolute qualities. It will be of interest to anyone following London concert life in the twentieth century. British and French music writing about Debussy, Poulenc, Messiaen and in particular Delius as well as organ music.
