Far Afield in the Caribbean Mary Bond,1971      Far Afield in the Caribbean Mary Wickham Bond,1971      Far Afield Vincent Debaene,2014-04-04 Anthropology has long had a vexed relationship with literature and nowhere has this been more acutely felt than in France where most ethnographers upon returning from the field write not one book but two a scientific monograph and a literary account In Far Afield brought to English language readers here for the first time Vincent Debaene puzzles out this phenomenon tracing the contours of anthropology and literature s mutual fascination and the ground upon which they meet in the works of thinkers from Marcel Mauss and Georges Bataille to Claude L vi Strauss and Roland Barthes The relationship between anthropology and literature in France is one of careful curiosity Literary writers are wary about anthropologists scientific austerity but intrigued by the objects they collect and the issues they raise while anthropologists claim to be scientists but at the same time are deeply concerned with writing and representational practices Debaene elucidates the richness that this curiosity fosters and the diverse range of writings it has produced from Proustian memoirs to proto surrealist diaries In the end he offers a fascinating intellectual history one that is itself located precisely where science and literature meet      Panama Canal Treaties United States. The Poetics and Politics of Diaspora Jerome C. Branche,2014-08-21 This book studies the creative discourse of the modern African diaspora by analyzing poems novels essays hip hop and dub poetry in the Caribbean England Spain and Colombia and capturing diasporan movement through mutually intersecting axes of dislocation and relocation and efforts at political group affirmation and settlement or location Branche s study connects London s multimillion dollar riots of 2011 and its antecedents associated with the West Indian settler community to the discontent and harrowing conditions facing black immigrants to contemporary Spain as gateway to Fortress Europe It links the brutal massacres that target Colombia s dispossessed and displaced poor and mainly black throwaway citizens victims of the drug trade and neoliberal expansionism to older Caribbean stories that tell of the original spurts of capitalist greed and the colonial cauldron it created at the center of which lay the slave trade In revisiting the question of what really has awaited Afro descendants at the end of the Middle Passage this volume brings transatlantic slavery the making of weak postcolonial states that bleed people and the needle s eye of racial identification together through a close reading of rappers black radicals dub poetry and novelists from Europe Africa and the Americas Branche at once demonstrates the existence of an archive of Afro modern diasporan discursive production and just as importantly points toward a historically rooted theoretical framework that would contain its liberatory trajectory The American Mediterranean Stephen Bonsal,1912 Panama Canal Treaties: Administration witnesses
