Exotic Appetites Lisa Heldke, 2015-12-22 Exotic Appetites is a far reaching exploration of what Lisa Heldke calls food adventuring the passion fashion and pursuit of experimentation with ethnic foods The aim of Heldke's critique is to expose and explore the colonialist attitudes embedded in our everyday relationship and approach to foreign foods Exotic Appetites brings to the table the critical literatures in postcolonialism critical race theory and feminism in a provocative and lively discussion of eating and ethnic cuisine Chapters look closely at the meanings and implications involved in the quest for unusual restaurants and exotic dishes related restaurant reviews and dining guides and ethnic cookbooks Media Studies Paul Marris, Sue Thornham, 2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches The first half Studying the Media explores in detail three core elements of media studies production and regulation of mass media media texts and reception and consumption of media The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas the news and advertising A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and contextualize the debates Contributors include Theodor W Adorno Marshall McLuhan Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Annette Kuhn Jürgen Habermas John Fiske Richard Dyer Niki Strange Danae Clark Angela McRobbie Bill Nichols Lynne Joyrich David Morley Ien Ang Janice Radway Henry Jenkins Tania Modleski Anne McClintock Sadie Plant Globalized Eating Cultures Jörg Dürrschmidt, York Kautt, 2018-09-10 This innovative volume explores the link between local and regional eating cultures and their mediatization via transnational TV cooking shows glocal food advertising and social media transfer of recipes Pursuing a global and interdisciplinary approach it brings together research conducted in Latin America Australia Africa Asia and Europe from leading scholars in sociology and political science media and cultural studies as well as anthropology Drawing on this rich case study material facilitates a revealing and engaging analysis of the connection between the meta concepts of globalization and mediatization Across fifteen chapters its authors provide fresh insights into the different impact that food and eating cultures can have on the everyday mediation of ethnicity and class as well as local regional and transnational modes of belonging in a media rich global environment This exciting addition to the food studies literature will appeal in particular to students and scholars of sociology anthropology media and cultural studies Cultural Citizenship Toby Miller, 2007 What does it mean to be a citizen today in an age of unbridled consumerism terrorism militarism and multinationalism In this passionate and dazzling book Toby Miller dares to answer this question with the depth of thought it deserves Fast moving and far ranging Cultural Citizenship blends fact theory observation and speculation in a way that continually startles and engages the reader Although he is unabashedly liberal in his politics Miller is anything but narrow minded He looks at media coverage of September 11th and the Iraq invasion as well as infotainment such as Food and Weather channels to see how U S TV is serving its citizens as part of the global commodity chain Repeatedly revealing the crushing grip of the invisible hand of television Miller shows us what we have given up in our drive to acquire and to belong For far too long cultural citizenship has been a concept invoked without content With the publication of this book it has at last been given flesh and substance

Masculinity and Popular Television Rebecca Feasey, 2008-10-06 This book is a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the key debates concerning the representation of masculinities in a wide range of popular television genres The volume looks at the depiction of public masculinity in the soap opera homosexuality in the situation comedy the portrayal of fatherhood in prime time animation emerging manhood in the supernatural teen text alternative gender roles in science fiction male authority in the police series masculine anxieties in the hospital drama violence and aggression in sports coverage ordinariness and emotional connectedness in the reality game show and domesticity in lifestyle television Masculinity and Popular Television examines the ways in which masculinities are being constructed circulated and interrogated in contemporary British and American programming and considers the ways in which such images can be understood in relation to the common sense model of the hegemonic male that is said to dominate the cultural landscape

Under a Mackerel Sky Rick Stein, 2013-09-12 All men should strive to learn before they die what they are running from and to and why Rick Stein's childhood in 1950s rural Oxfordshire and North Cornwall was idyllic His parents were charming and gregarious their five children much loved and given freedom typical of the time As he grew older the holidays were filled with loud and lively parties in his parents Cornish barn But ever present was the unpredictable mood of his bipolar father with Rick frequently the focus of his anger and sadness When Rick was 18 his father killed himself Emotionally adrift Rick left for Australia carrying a suitcase stamped with his father's initials Manual labour in the outback followed by adventures in America and Mexico toughened up the naive public schoolboy but at heart he was still lost and unsure what to do with his life Eventually Cornwall called him home From the entrepreneurial days of his mobile disco the Purple Tiger to his first unlikely nightclub where much of the time was spent breaking up drink fuelled fights Rick charts his personal journey in a way that is both wry and perceptive engaging and witty Shortlisted for the Specsavers National Book Awards 2013

Organising Knowledge in a Global Society Philip Hider, Ross Harvey, 2008-06-01 Organising Knowledge in a Global Society updates the successful first edition which has been widely used as an introduction to the field of information organisation both in Australia and overseas The work reflects current practice and trends paying particular attention to how libraries and other information services provide intellectual access to digital information resources through metadata In this revision the various information organisation components of the Web 2.0 phenomenon are discussed including social tagging and folksonomies The new edition also covers the latest developments in metadata standards such as Resource Description and Access and information retrieval systems such as the increasing support for faceted navigation Examples and case studies have been updated throughout

Jamie Oliver: King of the Kitchen - The biography of the man who revolutionised the way Britain eats Stafford Hildred, 2012-09-03 Jamie Oliver is Britain's best loved chef His matey charm and down to earth approach to cooking from The Naked Chef to 30 Minute Meals have made him a household favourite the length and breadth of the country Rising from humble pastry chef to television superstar by catching the eye of producers during a documentary about the River Café his on screen charisma meant that he featured heavily in the final programme and the offers came flooding in and so The Naked Chef was born Jamie's passion shone through and a whole generation of young people were captivated by his enthusiasm Cooking was suddenly cool His television series and books gave Jamie fame and fortune the world over but he always wanted to do something positive with his success Through his fifteen charity restaurants and campaigns to revolutionise school dinners and get Britain cooking again Jamie has proved himself to be more than simply a celebrity chef His desire to bring about radical change has seen him meet with top politicians and raise millions of pounds for good causes This is the fun and fascinating story behind Jamie Oliver talented chef father of four television celebrity political campaigner and national institution

More than Petticoats: Remarkable Florida Women E. Savoring Disgust Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2011-03-17 Disgust is a strong aversion yet paradoxically it can constitute an appreciative aesthetic response to works of art Artistic disgust can be funny profound sorrowful or gross This book examines numerous examples of disgust as it is aroused by art and offers a set of explanations for its aesthetic appeal

The Paradox of Authenticity in a Globalized World R. Cobb, 2014-04-02 Authenticity in our globalized world is a paradox This collection examines how authenticity relates to cultural products looking closely at how a particular ethnic food or genre of popular music or indigenous religious belief attains its aura of originality when all traditional cultural products are invented in a certain time and place

The Judgments of the Sea Ralph Delahaye Paine, 1912

Food and Foodways in Asia Sidney Cheung, Chee-Beng Tan, 2007-06-11 Food is an important cultural marker of identity in contemporary Asian societies and can provide a medium for the understanding of social relations family and kinship class and consumption gender ideology and cultural symbolism However a truly comprehensive view of food cannot neglect the politics of food production in particular how when from where and even why different kinds of food are produced prepared and supplied Food and Foodways in Asia is an anthropological inquiry providing rich ethnographic description and analysis of food production as it interacts with social and political complexities in Asia's diverse cultures. Prominent anthropologists examine how food is related to ethnic identity and boundary formation, consumerism and global food distribution, and the invention of local cuisine in the context of increasing cultural contact. With chapters ranging from the invention of local food for tourism development to Asia's contribution to world cuisine, Food and Foodways in Asia will be a fascinating read for anyone interested in the anthropology of food and/or Asian studies. Journeys, 2003. "And They Thought We Wouldn't Fight." Floyd Phillips Gibbons, 1918. Chemical Week, 1960. Books Magazine, 1993.
