 Ellenwood,2013-10-30 Trans acting Culture Writing and Memory is a collection of essays written in honour of Barbara Godard one of the most original and wide ranging literary critics theorists teachers translators and public intellectuals Canada has ever produced The contributors both established and emerging scholars extend Godard s work through engagements with her published texts in the spirit of creative interchange and intergenerational relay of ideas Their essays resonate with Godard s innovative scholarship situated at the intersection of such fields as literary studies cultural studies translation studies feminist theory arts criticism social activism institutional analysis and public memory In pursuit of unexpected linkages and connections the essays venture beyond generic and disciplinary borders zeroing in on Godard s transdisciplinary practice that has been extremely influential in the way that it framed questions and modeled interventions for the study of Canadian Qu b cois and Acadian literatures and cultures The authors work with the archives ranging from Canadian government policies and documents to publications concerning white supremacist organizations in Southern Ontario online materials from a Toronto based transgender arts festival a photographic mural installation commemorating the Montreal Massacre and the works of such writers and artists as Marie Clements Nicole Brossard France Daigle Nancy the Canadian Prairies Alison Calder,Robert Wardhaugh,2005-05-16 The Canadian Prairie has long been represented as a timeless and unchanging location defined by settlement and landscape Now a new generation of writers and historians challenge that perception and argue instead that it is a region with an evolving culture and history In a collection of ten essays History Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies explores a more contemporary prairie identity and reconfigures the prairie as a construct that is non linear and diverse responding to the impact of geographical historical and political currents These writers explore the connections between document and imagination between history and culture and between geography and time The subjects of the essays range widely the non linear structure of Carol Shield s The Stone Diaries the impact of Aberhart s Social Credit Marshall McLuhan and Mesopotamian myth on Robert Kroetsch s prairie postmodernism the role of document in long prairie poems the connection between cultural tourism and heritage the theme of regeneration in Margaret Laurence s Manawaka writing the influence of imagination on geography in Thomas Wharton s Icefields and the effects on an alpine climber of pre WWII ideological concepts of time and individualism Far and Wide
