Farewell To My Concubine:

Farewell to My Concubine Bihua Li,1992 Story of a male Beijing opera star his love for another male singer and the beautiful courtesan who comes between them sweeps through five decades of Chinese history New York Magazine,1993-10-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea A Study Guide for Lilian Lee's "Farewell My Concubine" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016-06-29 A Study Guide for Lilian Lee s Farewell My Concubine excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs Farewell to My Concubine LILLIAN. LEE,Nancy (read by) KWAN,1993 China Into Film Jerome Silbergeld,1999 Since 1984 Chinese cinema has been the most dramatic entry onto the international film scene China into Film is the first book to look at contemporary Chinese cinema as a visual art and to illustrate the ways in which it has been shaped by centuries of Chinese tradition Jerome Silbergeld looks at the significance of gender roles the strategies of film makers in coping with state censorship the translation of novels into films the continuing attachment of film makers to melodrama and cinematic critiques of Maoism and post Maoist culture Abundantly illustrated with Chinese paintings as well as scenes from such internationally acclaimed films as Yellow Earth Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and Farewell My Concubine China into Film reveals a cinematic form at once excitingly new and deeply imbedded in traditional Chinese visual culture Farewell to My Concubine Bihua Li,1993 Transnational Chinese Cinemas Sheldon H. Lu,1997-10-01 Zhang Yimou s first film Red Sorghum took the Golden Bear Award in 1988 at the Berlin International Film Festival Since then Chinese films have continued to arrest worldwide attention and capture major film awards winning an international following that continues to grow Transnational Chinese Cinemas spans nearly the entire length of twentieth century Chinese film history The volume traces the evolution of Chinese national cinema and demonstrates that gender identity has been central to its formation Femininity masculinity and sexuality have been an integral part of the filmic discourses of modernity nationhood and history This volume represents the most comprehensive wide ranging and up to date study of China s major cinematic traditions It is an indispensable source book for modern Chinese and Asian history politics literature and culture Queer Asian Cinema Andrew Grossman,2018-10-24 Explore queer themes in films from Hong Kong gangster flicks to Bollywood melodramas Although Asian films have reached a new height in popularity worldwide Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade is the first full length book in English solely devoted to examining the aesthetics and politics of homosexuality in Asian films This unique book presents multiple points of view on the portrayal of gay lesbian and transgendered people in film throughout Asia From the subversive sadomasochism of Japan's pink films to the hard boiled world of Hong Kong's gangster movies Queer Asian Cinema analyzes and discusses attitudes toward homosexuality in the full spectrum of Asian film In addition to studies of the representation of identified gay men lesbians and transgendered individuals it reveals the hidden homoerotic subtext of otherwise conventional films Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade examines diverse aspects of Asian films including the political and psychological links between feudal and sadomasochist hierarchies the inevitable punishment of homoerotic bonds in gangster films the integration of the homosexual couple into the Confucian family structure in Korean films the complexities of cross gender casting the differences between transvestism and cross dressing the definition of male genitalia as obscene Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade brings together experts in both film making and movie criticism providing a balanced viewpoint to unite the worlds of academic and popular perceptions on this subject It opens an exciting discussion of this important and largely neglected area of cinematic discourse

As Normal As Possible Ching Yau, 2010-02-01 These essays showcase emerging and established scholars working in sociology ethnography public health cultural activism and film studies The book poses new and exciting challenges to queer studies and other disciplines It also demonstrates that the study of Chinese sexuality is an emergent field and highlights the ways that different individuals and communities including male sex workers transsexual subjects lesbians and Asian migrants negotiate modernity and power structures in many Chinese contexts Yau Ching teaches cultural studies at Lingnan University in Hong Kong She is the author of five books in Chinese and one in English This is the first sustained collection of writings by established and young scholars on how sexualities are negotiated in Hong Kong and China It is innovative and exciting providing grounded empirical fieldwork as well as critical applications from the wider fields of literary historical studies public health cultural and film studies It demonstrates the study of Chinese sexuality and queer modernity in Asia as emergent fields emanating from many disciplines

Memoirs from the Beijing Film Academy Zhen Ni, 2002 Presents for the first time in English and in depth account of the origins of China's famous Fifth Generation of filmmakers

Farewell to My Concubine Pi-hua Li, Lilian Lee, 1993

Celluloid Comrades Song Hwee Lim, 2006-08-31 Without question Song Hwee Lim has presented us with an exemplar of quality scholarship in the study of contemporary Chinese cinemas By combining an impressive command of Chinese and Western literary as well as film source materials with a sophisticated mode of analysis and an unassuming argumentative style he has authored an exhilarating book one that not only treats cinematic representations of male homosexuality with great sensitivity but also demonstrates what it means to read with critical intelligence and vision

Rey Chow Andrew W Mellon Professor of the Humanities Brown University Celluloid Comrades is a timely demonstration of the importance of queer studies in the field of transnational Chinese cinemas Lim dissects gay sexuality in selective Chinese language films and vigorously contests commonly accepted critical paradigms and theoretical models Readers will find a provocative powerful voice in this new book

Sheldon H Lu Professor of Comparative Literature University of California at Davis Celluloid Comrades offers a cogent analytical introduction to the representation of male homosexuality in Chinese cinemas within the last decade It posits that representations of male homosexuality in Chinese film have been polyphonic and multifarious posing a challenge to monolithic and essentialized constructions of both Chineseness and homosexuality Given the artistic achievement and popularity of the films discussed here the position of celluloid comrades can no longer be ignored within both transnational Chinese and global queer cinemas The book also challenges readers to reconceptualize these works in relation to global issues such as homosexuality and gay and lesbian politics and their interaction with local conditions agents and audiences Tracing the engendering conditions within the film industries of China Taiwan and Hong Kong Song Hwee Lim argues that the emergence of Chinese cinemas in the international scene since the 1980s created a public sphere in which representations of marginal sexualities could flourish in its interstices Examining the politics of representation in the age of multiculturalism through debates about the films Lim calls for a rethinking of the limits and hegemony of gay liberationist discourse prevalent in current scholarship and film criticism He provides in depth analyses of key films and auteurs reading them within contexts as varied as premodern transgender practice in Chinese theater to postmodern diasporic forms of sexualities Informed by cultural and postcolonial studies and critical theory this acutely observed and theoretically sophisticated work will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students as well as general readers looking for a deeper understanding of contemporary Chinese cultural politics cinematic representations and queer culture      The Advocate ,1994-03-22 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States      Farewell My Concubine Lilian Lee,1994-06-01 Beginning amid the decadent glamour of China in the 1930s and ending in the 1980s in Hong Kong this brilliant novel which formed the basis for the award winning movie is the passionate story of an opera student who falls in love with his best friend and the beautiful woman who comes between them      Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S. McDougall,2003 The authors and audiences for 20th century Chinese literature especially fiction are examined in a fresh light While modern Chinese fictions are imaginary in that they do not constitute reliable portraits of Chinese life they offer insights into the writers themselves and their implied audiences      Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli,2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005 Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features      The Myriad Faces of Heroes and Heroines Julian Patrick Ward,Kelly Kar Yue Chan,Chi Sum Garfield Lau,2025-03-31 This collection scrutinizes the representation dynamics transformation and or adaptation of various heroes and heroines in different folkloric traditions and narratives in the context of Asia Exploring notions in the topics of mythologies folktales literature theatre performance and any other art forms the volume collates discussions on the pragmatic and aesthetic representation of men and women within the mythic world and within contemporary settings In doing so it produces a contemporary theorization of Asian heroes and heroines beyond their mythic structure and folkloric limits In considering the representation of heroes and heroines in the Asian folkloric tradition and in comparative contexts the book establishes connections between characters from myths and folktales and those found in contemporary narratives considers the adaptation and transformation of heroes and heroines as revealed in a variety of literary works and also assesses the gendering of social roles in modern literature and other art forms It is of interest to scholars and advanced students in comparative literature Asian cultural studies and theatre and performance

100 Queer Films Since Stonewall Chelsea McCracken, Matt Connolly, 2025-05-01 100 Queer Films identifies 100 films that shaped the trajectory of queer cinema connected with larger movements and showcased the artistry of queer filmmaking In addition to those films that already hold significant places in queer film canons this volume examines often overlooked titles By highlighting hidden gems alongside well known classics this book makes a valuable accessible contribution to queer film studies While queer films have existed since the beginning of cinema this book focuses on films released after the Stonewall uprising in 1969 Stonewall is considered a turning point for queer politics and representation and the 50 years since that event have generated an explosion of queer creativity The book describes significant formal elements of each film and connects them to their interrelated contexts By moving in chronological order it introduces a contemporary history of queer film and provides an overview of major developments in LGBTQ communities cultures and politics This volume presents a framework for understanding the value of queer film
