identify and distinguish themselves from others Manlow defines the four main tasks of a fashion firm as creation of an image translation of that image into a product presentation of the product and selling the product Each of these processes is interrelated and each requires the efforts of a variety of specialists who are often in distant locations Manlow shows how the design and presentation of fashion is influenced by changes in society both cultural and economic Information about past sales and reception of items as well as projective research informs design manufacturing sales distribution and marketing decisions Manlow offers a comprehensive view of the ways in which creative decisions are made leading up to the creation of actual styles She helps to define the contribution fashion firms make in upholding challenging or redefining the social order Readers will find this a fascinating examination of an industry that is quite visible but little understood The Religious Life of Dress Lynne Hume,2013-10-24 From clothing to the painted and scarified nude body through overt public display or esoteric symbols known only to the initiated dress can convey information about beliefs faith identity power agency resistance and fashion Taking a senses approach Hume's engaging account takes into consideration the look smell feel touch and sound of religious apparel the smells and bells of dress and its accoutrements as well as the emotions evoked by donning religious garb The book's global perspective provides wide ranging yet detailed coverage of religious dress from the history and meaning of the simple no frills attire of the Anabaptists to the power structure displayed in the elaborate fabrics and colours of the Roman Catholic Church Hume examines the 2 500 year old tradition of Buddhist robes the nudity of India's holy men and much more With chapters on Sufism Vodou modern Pagans as well as painted and tattooed indigenous and modern Western bodies the reader is swept along on a sensual journey of the sight sound smell and feel of wearing religion Unique in its field this intriguing and informative anthropological approach to the body and dress is an essential read for students of Anthropology Anthropology of Dress Sociology Fashion and Textiles Culture and Dress Body and Culture and Cultural Studies International Retail Marketing Christopher Moore,Margaret Bruce,Grete Birtwistle,2007-03-30 International Retail Marketing combines a broad thematic overview of the key issues concerning international retail marketing with a series of incisive cases and examples of industry practice from markedly different sectors as fashion food and healthcare The authors provide an accessible and wide ranging outline of the fundamentals of the subject such as trends in retail marketing strategy and logistics and buying and merchandise management within an international perspective Contributions from Europe North America and Asia show the dynamics affecting international retailing through a variety of case Key discussion points are highlighted throughout the text giving a hands on focus The Glamour System S.
