Fashion Progress Hard Feelings And Doing The Business

Michael Earley, Philippa Keil

Fashion Progress Hard Feelings And Doing The Business:

Hard Feelings Doug Lucie, 2013-12-04 We're supposed to be having a party. It's supposed to be fun. This is my house and when I say everybody have fun then everybody have fun. Thatcher's Britain. Brixton 1981. As tensions mount on the streets in the safety of their home a group of Oxford University graduates barely notice what's happening on the streets outside as police and rioters clash shops are looted and buildings are set on fire. In both worlds there is a fight for rights a fight for respect a fight for control. Who will win? Who will lose? Who will make the strongest cocktail? And when the dust finally settles the question remains: Will things ever change? Hard Feelings was first staged at the Oxford Playhouse in 1982 before transferring to the Bush Theatre in 1983 directed by Mike Bradwell. It was later broadcast as a BBC Play for Today. Hard Feelings was revived by Defibrillator Productions in a production at the Finborough Theatre in 2013.

The Contemporary Monologue: Men Michael Earley, Philippa Keil, 2016-04-15 The Contemporary Monologue is an exciting selection of speeches of all types serious and comic realistic and absurdist drawn from plays written by contemporary playwrights over the past ten years. Updating the popular Modern Monologues this fresh collection of speeches represents the best American and English playwrights of today including Caryl Churchill, Ariel Dorfman, John Guare, David Mamet, Tony Kushner, Stephen Sondheim and John Weidman. Organized for maximum benefit to the actor, gleaning for background material, individual selections are introduced with a summary of the play's action up to the point the speech begins. A brief sketch of the character is also given utilizing where possible the playwright's own words. Finally a commentary follows each monologue alerting the actor to details in the speech that could help him/her perform it better. Some of the highlights of The Contemporary Monologue for men include selections from Angels in America by Tony Kushner, Frankie and Johnnie by Terrence McNally, States of Shock by Sam Shepard and Speed the Plow by David Mamet. Highlights of The Contemporary Monologue for women include selections from The Contemporary Monologue. It is an invaluable resource for acting classes, competitions, auditions and rehearsals. It is an affordable and necessary tool for serious actors everywhere.

The Economic Civil Rights Movement Michael Ezra, 2013-04-17 Economic inequalities have been perhaps the most enduring problem facing African Americans since the civil rights movement despite the attention they have received from activists Although the civil rights movement dealt successfully with injustices like disenfranchisement and segregated public accommodations economic disparities between blacks and whites remain sharp and the wealth gap between the two groups has widened in the twenty first century The Economic Civil Rights Movement is a collection of thirteen original essays that analyze the significance of economic power to the black freedom struggle by exploring how African Americans fought for increased economic autonomy in an attempt to improve the quality of their lives It covers a wide range of campaigns ranging from the World War II era through the civil rights and black power movements and beyond The unfinished business of the civil rights movement primarily is economic This book turns backward toward history to examine the ways African Americans have engaged this continuing challenge British Book News British Council, 1991 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people
