, 1945 Fashion, Dress and Post-postmodernism José Blanco F., Andrew Reilly, 2021-01-28 Scholars have argued that postmodernism is dead and that we are entering into a new era that some have labelled altermodernism digimodernism performatism and post postmodernism This book expands on the nascent scholarship of post postmodernism to highlight how dress fashion and appearance are reflections of this new age The volume starts with a discussion of fashion subjectivity and time and an analysis of temporality technology and fashion in post postmodern times Later chapters analyse the work of design houses and mass producers such as Vetements Gucci and Uniqlo whose products align with post postmodern aesthetics hyperconsumption and hypermodern branding The book looks at diverse geographic and identity markers by discussing post postmodernism and the religio politico cultural questions in South Asian Muslim fashion image and identity

presentation in queer social networking apps and by exploring fashion designer Tom Ford's output as a movie director. Two chapters discuss the post postmodern fashion exhibition with analyses of recent exhibitions and an in depth look at the work of exhibition maker Judith Clark. The final chapter is written by members of The Rational Dress Society, a counter fashion collective that makes JUMPSUIT an experimental garment to replace all clothes. Fashion Dress and Post postmodernism is a companion to research on relationships between post postmodernism fashion and dress and the go to resource for researchers and students interested in these areas. Critical Fashion Practice Adam Geczy, Vicki Karaminas, 2017-02-09

There is a new form of design practice within the contemporary fashion industry which is active in complex forms of social commentary and critique. While fashion in the modernist era has shown signs of criticism and subversion, these were either in the form of subcultures or perversions such as punk or BDSM styling. Today, however, these genres have been absorbed into the fashion industry itself, meaning that critical fashion is now far from limited to the subcultures from which it came. This book explores this new space for criticism within the popular fashion sphere to demonstrate how designers are disrupting conventions, challenging beliefs and stirring change from within the system itself. Critical Fashion Practice considers a range of contemporary designers across the globe from the US to Japan whose conceptual designs embody this critical language including case studies such as Rei Kawakubo's deconstructive silhouettes for Comme des Garçons and Walter Van Beirendonck's sadomasochistic menswear collections amongst other key players such as Miuccia Prada, Vivienne Westwood and Viktor Rolf. Arguing that the rise of critical fashion coincides with a noticeable decline in the criticality of art, Geczy and Karaminas go beyond slotting fashion into previously established art theories. Conceiving a new cultural role for fashion that affords insight into identity, class, race, sexuality and gender, this book shows how fashion can not only reflect and comment on but can also be a part of social change. Fashion Film Nick Rees-Roberts, 2018-12-13

The moving image has become a key marketing tool for luxury fashion, central in enabling brands to shape their visual codes and extend their brand awareness. Fashion Film is the first detailed study of the shifting shape of fashion imagery in the digital age, investigating the role of the moving image in the promotion, communication and spectacle of contemporary fashion. Combining interdisciplinary analysis of cinema and digital culture, this ground breaking book traces the emergence of fashion film in the 21st century through its historical roots in pre digital forms of photography, experimental cinema, mass media advertising and documentary film, making right up to today's visual spread of contemporary fashion on video blogs, online magazines and live streamed catwalk shows. Examining collaborations between fashion designers and pioneering image makers such as Guy Bourdin, Jean Paul Goode, William Klein and Nick Knight, the book highlights the critical tension between the fashion film conceived as a creative endeavour and as commercial enterprise. Fashion Film also includes a parallel focus on factual representations of fashion through the recent rise of documentary fashion film that goes behind the scenes to follow the processes and personalities involved in making fashion. Accessible and well illustrated, Fashion Film will appeal to students and scholars of fashion film.
