Load, Seal & Ship, 1st Edition, AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 Metrobiology - a Study of Life in the City Tobe Momah, 2009-02-27 Mismatch Theories in Evolutionary Medicine Jonas Pöld, 2025-04-30 This book investigates the limits and possibilities of mismatch theories in evolutionary medicine a topic that has not yet received much attention in philosophy Mismatch explanations are part of a broader attempt to establish evolutionary thinking as a foundation for human medicine Although mismatch explanations are well established in ecology to account for extinction risks the ongoing attempts to transfer them into human medical contexts are riddled with conceptual and ethical problems This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the theoretical presuppositions as well as the normative implications associated with mismatch theorizing in evolutionary medicine Building Financial Resilience Jerry Buckland, 2018-02-19 This book examines how credit and finance schemes affect the financial lives of vulnerable people around the world These schemes include payday lending matched savings and financial literacy in the Global North and micro credit and mobile banking in the Global South Buckland sets these schemes within the context of financialization and seeks to identify strengths weaknesses and ways to enhance the well being of vulnerable people This book s coverage of a wide range of financial products and geographic regions makes for a unique and innovative perspective on this topic It presents a balanced critique of credit and finance schemes under the assumption that reform is the most practical means to improve human well being California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., International Perspectives in Educational Effectiveness Research James Hall, Ariel Lindorff, Pamela Sammons, 2020-08-10 This edited volume explores questions about what works how for whom when and why in education and considers how and to what extent such knowledge can be understood and extended across countries and different educational systems The book starts by presenting an overview of the history of educational effectiveness research and offers examples of current theories of educational effectiveness Next it provides exemplars of effectiveness studies that report on educational systems policies and practices from across six continents These studies vary in their research methods and outcomes illustrating a field of research that is conscious of its origins its agenda and its ambition to understand and improve the functioning of schools networks and education systems around the world The book brings these threads together within the final chapter and uses them to signpost directions for future research International Perspectives in Educational Effectiveness Research is an excellent and timely addition to the educational effectiveness literature It offers a rigorous and insightful range of international perspectives that will be of interest to researchers policy makers and students of the field Professor Christopher Chapman University of Glasgow UK President Elect of the International Congress for School Effectiveness and Improvement This important new volume brings up to date the contributions of educational effectiveness research to the development of policy and practice in the field over the last 50 years Drawing together the ideas of many of the major researchers in the field it provides a comprehensive analysis of these earlier contributions leading to critical commentaries that point to areas for future attention The editors make use of expertise from a range of disciplines to strengthen the themes that are addressed Most importantly the book emphasises the need to pay greater attention to the challenge of equity arguably the most significant challenge facing education systems internationally In this respect a particular strength of the book is the accounts provided from many different parts of the world These underline the importance of context a factor often previously overlooked in this field of research Given all of this I have no doubt that International Perspectives in Educational Effectiveness Research will become a major source for practitioners policy makers and researchers Professor Mel Ainscow Emeritus Professor of Education University of Manchester Professor of Education University of Glasgow UK

Department , Passing the Final FFICM Muzzammil Ali,2024-04-30 This innovative resource serves as a fusion of an MCQ guide and a textbook providing essential content for postgraduate trainees gearing up for the FFICM Final exam a vital part of the CCT in Intensive Care Medicine Crafted to meet the unique requirements of the MCQ while also addressing the necessity for concise well structured responses in the OSCE this book prioritises quick topic transitions delivering focused streamlined learning across a range of ICM topics Its uniqueness lies in its unorthodox structure rather than having a conventional table of contents it gives you the freedom to start your learning adventure from any page Each of the 1 400 facts is structured as a question reflecting the format of both exams Answers are conveniently positioned just below eliminating the need for constant page flipping The material is carefully curated to cover the breadth of the ICM curriculum weaving in valuable insights from the author s and colleagues exam experiences Random questions replicate the unpredictability of both exams and enhance the reader s capacity to swiftly switch between topics during self assessment This balances knowledge application and active recall while using memory enhancing methods like self quizzing chunking and spaced repetition

Leadership in Diverse Learning Contexts Greer Johnson,Neil Dempster,2016-04-29 This book presents the outcomes of research and practical endeavour in some of the diverse contexts in which learning takes place classrooms schools professional development settings community projects and service sector agencies It invites the reader to engage with two related questions of contemporary concern in the leadership field What can we learn about the important influence of different contexts on leadership practice and how are people brought together as collective human agents in different patterns of distributive leadership In doing so this collection emphasises three of the critical concepts at play when leadership is viewed not as position but as activity The three concepts are purpose context and human agency When this view of leadership is understood it is always about achieving shared goals with people power no matter the circumstances in which they are gathered together

Critical and Creative Research Methodologies in Social Work Lia Bryant,2016-03-09 Social work research is concerned with complex social issues closely connected to communities of people who are marginalized and oppressed This volume develops critical and creative research methodologies that place questions of social justice at their centre and take innovative approaches to collecting analysing interpreting and presenting research data The first section of the book examines textual data produced from an array of methodologies focused on the spoken and or written word These approaches allow those who are often silenced to speak by providing space and time to capture memory and meanings that may not come to light in a time driven structured research method like an interview or a questionnaire The second section of the book discusses visual methods including an examination of historical artefacts like photographs and objects and participant engagement with art specifically clay sculpture and drawings Both sets of methods examine the concept of time that is how we understand time as in our past memories how we develop relationships and knowledge over time These creative and critical methods provide new insights into ways of undertaking social research in social work which captures the complexity of social experiences problems and meanings that are more often than not embedded in time and place
