Fast Talk on a Slow Track Rita Williams-Garcia,1991 Fast Talk on a Slow Track , Open Minds to Equality
Nancy Schniedewind, Ellen Davidson,2014 This is an educator s sourcebook of activities to help students understand and change inequalities based on race gender class age language sexual orientation physical mental ability and religion The activities also promote respect for diversity and interpersonal equality among students fostering a classroom that is participatory cooperative and democratic An essential resource for teachers leaders in professional development and curriculum specialists Features of the book include ready to implement learning activities in both traditional and interdisciplinary curriculum areas and inclusive framework for thinking about diversity and responding practically to various forms of difference in classrooms a variety of lesson styles including role plays case studies dilemma stories cooperative learning activities interviews data analysis and creative and expository writing Multicultural Gifted Education Donna Y. Ford,2021-09-03 Each year the United States witnesses significant changes in the demographics of its citizens Accordingly schools and the students we teach are also changing With such changes come the need responsibility and obligation for educators to provide students with an education that is both rigorous and culturally responsive This book bridges the gap that exists between educating advanced learners and educating culturally different learners Multicultural Gifted Education 2nd ed addresses various topics including racially and culturally diverse students and families historical and legal perspectives on educating gifted and minority students culturally responsive curriculum and assessment and counseling students from a multicultural perspective Urban Teens in the Library Denise E. Agosto, Ph.D., Sandra Hughes-Hassell,2010-01-26 From a team of experts who have researched the information habits and preferences of urban teens to build better and more effective school and public library programs Jumped Rita Williams-Garcia,2009-10-06 Beloved author Rita Williams Garcia intertwines the lives of three very different teens in this fast paced gritty narrative about choices and the impact that even the most seemingly insignificant ones can have A National Book Award finalist One day One huge New York City high school Three girls headed toward one slow motion collision There s Trina a pretty self involved artist who s sure she s bringing beauty and color to the lives of everyone around her regardless of what they really think There s Leticia who skates by on minimal effort she s more interested in her cell phone her nails and gossip than school And there s Dominique an angry basketball player who s been benched for low grades When Trina unknowingly offends Dominique Dominique decides that it s going down after school she s going to jump Trina Trina has no idea And Leticia is the only witness to Dominique s rage the only one who could stop the beatdown from coming But does she want to get involved in this mess Rip-Roaring Reads for Reluctant Teen Readers Gale W. Sherman,Bette D. Ammon,1993-11-15 Selected for their high interest appealing formats appropriate reading levels outstanding writing and popularity these contemporary spellbinding titles 20 for grades 5 8 and 20 for grades 9 12 reflect a variety of genres and themes that will encourage lifelong literacy Given for each title are genre and themes review citations author information plot summary reading and interest rankings booktalks literature extensions alternative book report suggestions and reproducible bookmarks that suggest further reading Young Adult Fiction by African American Writers, 1968-1993 Deborah Kutenplon, Ellen Olmstead, 2014-04-08 Comprehensive and up to date The first contemporary publication to go beyond examining broad themes and trends in the field this timely volume looks closely at specific authors and texts The book is comprehensive and as current as possible covering works by African American authors for young adults published between 1968 1993 some 200 titles by close to 50 writers In addition to established authors and bestselling titles the coverage includes material overlooked by previous studies such as works from small presses and talented new authors Guidelines for evaluation An extensive introduction reviews important milestones in this body of literature and analyzes noteworthy bibliographical and critical publications about such writing It includes suggested guidelines for evaluating a work in terms of its direct and indirect treatment of such issues as race gender class ability age sexuality and sexual orientation The book also offers specific guidance for determining the appropriate readership for a work with regard to age and gender Unusually extensive annotations The main body of the book is an annotated bibliography alphabetical by author with the works arranged chronologically by publication date The annotations are much more extensive than those in other bibliographies Each annotation reads more like a full length book review and is from one to two pages long and explores themes plot and character development evaluates the quality of the writing judges the handling of issues of race class and gender and provides a readership recommendation Written in accessible language this user friendly book presents a wide range of factual information evaluations and analyses It is a valuable tool for all teachers librarians counselors and young adults

This Land Is Our Land Agnes Regan Perkins, Alethea K. Helbig, 1994-09-26 How do you select the best recent works of fiction oral tradition and poetry about African American Asian American Hispanic American and Native American Indian experiences and traditions from the profusion of titles being published today This annotated bibliography of titles for children and young adults published from 1985 through the end of 1993 with 60% published since 1990 provides a one stop selection tool Appraisals of 559 titles as well as information about an additional 188 recent books and 90 earlier ones of importance are provided Each entry features a plot summary incorporating themes critical comments with a judgment of the book's value as an example of its genre suggestions of other books by that writer and related books of importance The authors who are recognized authorities in children's literature and an advisory board of librarians and teachers each of whom specializes in the literature of a particular ethnic group have provided insightful critical appraisals and expertise and guidance in the selection of titles Helpful subject grade level author title and illustrator indexes are organized for ease of use Titles in the grade level and subject indexes are also identified by ethnic group Against Borders Hazel Rochman, 1993 This excellent work addresses the issues and controversies surrounding multicultural literature Rochman who lived under apartheid in South Africa and who is assistant editor for Booklist's youth section believes that books make a difference Her introduction attempts to put multiculturalism in perspective The first half of the book consists of thematic essays about literature and culture with examples drawn from a variety of literary works The second half is an annotated bibliography of fiction nonfiction and videos about the Holocaust apartheid ethnic groups in the United States and issues from other regions around the world There is a thematic index to the books mentioned in the essays and a general author title index Highly recommended for all secondary schools for selection reading guidance and unit planning Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land Best Books for Young Adults Holly Koelling, 2007-08-13 Rev ed of Best books for young adults Betty Carter with Sally Estes and Linda Waddle 2nd ed c2000 A Study Guide for Joanne Hyppolite's "Seth and Samona" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse, 1997 A careful selection of children's and young adult books with multicultural themes and topics which were published in the United States and Canada between 1991 and 1996 Preface p vii Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, Terrie M.
