Finding God In The Singing River Christianity Spirit Nature:

Finding God in the Singing River Mark I. Wallace, 2005-03-04 We live in an age of vast and rapid destruction of habitats and species Yet Christianity holds great potential for healing this situation Indeed the Bible and Christian tradition are a treasure trove of rich images and stories about God as an earthen being who sustains the natural world with compassion and thereby models for humankind environmentally healthy ways of being Mark Wallace's stimulating book retrieves a central but often neglected biblical theme the idea of God as carnal Spirit who indwells all things as the basis for constructing a green spirituality responsive to the environmental needs of our time In the biblical tradition he writes God as Spirit is an ecological presence that shows itself to us daily by living in and through the earth One message of Christianity therefore is celebration of the bodily material world ancient redwoods vernal springs broad winged hawks everyday pigweed as the place that God indwells and cares for in order to maintain the well being of our common planetary home Alongside his green reading of the Bible and tradition Wallace employs the resources of deep ecology Neopagan spirituality and the environmental justice movement to rethink Christianity as an earth based body loving religion He also analyzes color images reproduced in the book Wallace's bold yet careful work reawakens our sense of the sacrality of the earth and the life that the trinitarian God creates there It also grounds the impulses of New Age spirituality in a profoundly biblical notion of God's being and activity

Dark Green Religion Bron Taylor, 2009-11-03 In this innovative and deeply felt work Bron Taylor examines the evolution of green religions in North America and beyond spiritual practices that hold nature as sacred and have in many cases replaced traditional religions Tracing a wide range of groups radical environmental activists lifestyle focused bioregionalists surfers new agers involved in ecopsychology and groups that hold scientific narratives as sacred Taylor addresses a central theoretical question How can environmentally oriented spiritually motivated individuals and movements be understood as religious when many of them reject religious and supernatural worldviews The dark of the title further expands this idea by emphasizing the depth of believers passion and also suggesting a potential shadow side besides uplifting and inspiring such religion might mislead deceive or in some cases precipitate violence This book provides a fascinating global tour of the green religious phenomenon enabling readers to evaluate its worldwide emergence and to assess its role in a critically important religious revolution

Pentecostal tradition and situates them within the broader context of Christian ecumenical ecotheologies Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Ecofeminist The author advances a novel approach to Pentecostal ecotheology through a pneumatology of the Spirit baptized creation the charismatic creational community the holistic ecological Spirit and the eschatological Spirit of ecological mission Significantly this book is the first substantive contribution to a Pentecostal pneumatological theology of creation with a particular focus on the Pentecostal community and its significance for the broader ecumenical community Furthermore it offers a fresh theological approach to imagining and sustaining earth friendly practice in the twenty first century Pentecostal church Common Goods Catherine Keller,Elias Ortega-Aponte,2015-12-01 In the face of globalized ecological and economic crises how do religion the postsecular and political theology reconfigure political theory and practice As the planet warms and the chasm widens between the 1 percent and the global 99 what thinking may yet energize new alliances between religious and irreligious constituencies This book brings together political theorists philosophers theologians and scholars of religion to open discursive and material spaces in which to shape a vibrant planetary commons Attentive to the universalizing tendencies of the common the contributors seek to reappropriate the term in response to the corporate logic that asserts itself as a universal solvent In the resulting conversation the common returns as an interlinked manifold under the ethos of its multitudes and the ecology of its multiplicity Beginning from what William Connolly calls the palpable fragility of things Common Goods assembles a transdisciplinary political theology of the Earth With a nuance missing from both atheist and orthodox religious approaches the contributors engage in a multivocal conversation about sovereignty capital ecology and civil society The result is an unprecedented thematic assemblage of cosmopolitics and religious diversity of utopian space and the time of insurrection of Christian socialism radical democracy and disability theory of quantum entanglement and planetarity of theology fleshly and political I Believe. Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar Applying a re envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism

Green Christianity Mark I Wallace, 2010-09-10 The central message of this book is that religion has a special role to play in saving the planet Religion has the unique power to fire the imagination and empower the will to break the cycle of addiction to nonrenewable energy The environmental crisis is a crisis not of the head but of the heart The problem is not that we do not know how to stop climate change but rather that we lack the inner strength to redirect our culture and economy toward a sustainable future Only a bold and courageous faith can undergird a long term commitment to change This book is a call to hope not despair a survey of promising directions and a call for readers to discover meaning and purpose in their lives through a spiritually charged commitment to saving the Earth

African Indigenous Ecological Knowledge Systems Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, 2022-07-14 The perspectives in this book reveal how in African anthroposophy earth based spiritual traditions and innovative spiritual practices are already emerging in response to the painful realities of climate change mass extinction biodiversity loss and the disruption of local and global ecosystems which have for long not received the attention that it duly deserves This piece therefore will become one of the greatest ornaments and lights in the world of African eco spirituality as it responds to questions that are long overdue Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism Learning the Language of the Fields Daniel G. Deffenbaugh,2006-12-25 Deffenbaugh calls us to live in a reciprocal relationship with our biotic communities the plants animals and other non human cultures that share our particular places in the world By rerooting our global lifestyles in the ecological knowledge of our homes we may truly begin to mend the health of our planet Deffenbaugh marries Christian theology and spiritual disciplines with Native American mythology and the practice of organic gardening to deepen our engagement with the places in which we live Theology, Science and Life Carmody Grey,2023-01-26 Offering a bold intervention in the ongoing debate about the relationship between theology and science Theology Science and Life proposes that the strong demarcation between the two spheres is unsustainable theology occurs within and not outside what we call science and science occurs within and not outside theology The book applies this in a penetrating way to the most topical contentious and philosophically charged science of late modernity biology Rejecting the easy dualism of expressions such as theology and science theology or science modern biology is examined so as to illuminate the nature of both In making this argument the book achieves two further things It is the first major English language reception and application of the thought of philosopher Hans Jonas in theology and it makes a decisive contribution to the unfolding reception of Radical Orthodoxy one of the most influential schools in contemporary Anglophone theology Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel,Matt Eaton,Tim Harvie,2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton's flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth Watershed Discipleship Ched Myers,2016-10-21 This collection introduces and explores watershed discipleship as a critical contextual and constructive approach to ecological theology and practice and features emerging voices from a generation that has grown up under the shadow of climate catastrophe Watershed Discipleship is a triple entendre that recognizes we are in a watershed historical moment of crisis focuses on our intrinsically bioregional locus as followers of Jesus and urges us to become disciples of our watersheds Bibliographic framing essays by Myers trace his journey into a bioregionalist Christian faith and practice and offer reflections on incarnational theology hermeneutics and ecclesiology The essays feature more than a dozen activists educators and practitioners under the age of forty whose work and witness attest to a growing movement of resistance and reimagination across North America This anthology overviews the bioregional paradigm and its theological and political significance for local sustainability restorative justice and spiritual renewal Contributors reread both biblical texts and churchly practices such as mission baptism and liturgy through the lens of replacement Herein is a comprehensive and engaged call for a Transition church that can help turn our history around toward environmental resiliency and social justice by passionate advocates on the front lines of watershed discipleship CONTRIBUTORS Sasha Adkins Jay Beck Tevyn East Erinn Fahey Katarina Friesen Matt Humphrey Vickie Machado Jonathan McRay Sarah Nolan Reyna Ortega Dave Pritchett Erynn Smith Sarah Thompson Lydia Wylie Kellermann The Haunting of Mississippi Barbara Sillery, 2011-09-08 Excellent provides well researched history as well as reports of recent unusual phenomenon from the author of Biloxi Memories Southern Spirit Guide The Hospitality State plays hosts to dozens of supernatural entities in this creepastic guide to the other side Chilling accounts of poltergeist activity include such landmarks as the McRaven House where spiteful spirits smack guests without warning and an image of a Confederate soldier appears in contemporary photographs A section on Anchuca in Vicksburg describes the vision of a woman in a fancy dress who floats through bedroom doors and the sound of dripping water without a source Other establishments include Merrehope King's Tavern and the Williams Gingerbread House Sucked me right in to Mississippi's rich haunted history Sillery eloquently describes the settings of her stories so I could easily visualize each of the places she writes about At some points I was scared out of my bones Jackson Free Press The Task of Theology Anselm Min , 2014-09-11 A rare opportunity to read and reflect upon the thought of some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theology in one volume this collection offers informative indicators of the state of theology today Together these provocative essays offer a resource for teachers and a chance to facilitate conversation among those working in different areas of an increasingly fragmented discipline Publisher Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world's Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of

Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide
