Lost on the Pga and European Tours Jocelyn Hefner, 2015-11-20 Jocelyn Hefner grew up in an affluent family always restless never satisfied determined to be the best at everything and the last one to ever give up As she matured into a woman all her plans were set to become an international interior designer until she made the decision to follow her husband's dream instead of her own. In her engaging memoir Hefner shares details from her journey as she traveled for ten years on the PGA and European tours with her professional golfer husband and became entangled in a world that came with six thousand dollar dresses, private jets, and a compulsion to stay by his side so no one else would. But when he told her their marriage was over, Hefner reveals how she struggled to find herself beyond their glamorous life and with help from a loving mentor eventually learned to look inward and embrace a deep and meaningful life. Lost on the PGA and European Tours is the powerful story of one woman's quest to return to her essential self and actualize her own dreams after being lost within a prestigious world of fame and wealth. Outdoors in the Southwest Andrew Gulliford, 2014-04-18

More college students than ever are majoring in Outdoor Recreation, Outdoor Education, or Adventure Education, but fewer and fewer Americans spend any time in thoughtful, respectful engagement with wilderness. While many young people may think of adrenaline-laced extreme sports as prime outdoor activities, with Outdoors in the Southwest Andrew Gulliford seeks to promote appreciation for and discussion of the wild landscapes where those sports are played. Advocating an outdoor ethic based on curiosity, cooperation, humility, and ecological literacy, this essay collection features selections by renowned southwestern writers including Terry Tempest Williams, Edward Abbey, Craig Childs, and Barbara Kingsolver, as well as scholars, experienced guides, and river rats. Essays explain the necessity of nature in the digital age, recount rafting adventures, and reflect on the psychological effects of expeditions. True-life cautionary tales tell of encounters with nearly disastrous flash floods, 900-foot falls, and lightning strikes. The final chapter describes the work of Great Old Broads for Wilderness, the Colorado Fourteeners Initiative, and other exemplars of wilderness tithing, giving back to public lands through volunteering, stewardship, and eco-advocacy. Addressing the evolution of public land policy, the meaning of wilderness, and the importance of environmental protection, this collection serves as an intellectual guidebook not just for students but for travelers and anyone curious about the changing landscape of the West. Finding My Voice: A Memoir of Hope and Healing Silas Mary, 2025-01-23

Stories of Transformation and Hope Irene Alexander, 2014-01-08 What if the people I know were to be transformed by an encounter with the cosmos The foreign woman who argues with the doctor the homeless man on the street corner the corrupt politician the fisherman risking his life to make a living What if I met up with them in a decade and found that each had experienced a life transformation after meeting the God-Man Jesus who touched them in the deepest core of their being And what if one of Jesus' companions was to meet them and listen to their story the story of their life and their encounter with the one who brought transformation This book collects the imagined stories of men and women of whom we know very little only the bare bones of their encounters It is a book for the foreign woman the homeless man the politician and the fisherman any of us who want to deeply encounter a God who meets us as a real person The stories touch us because they are refashioned into the contextual thinking of our time and our culture and yet they reflect the reality of another time a time when God walked among us in our streets and our neighborhood and into our homes
