Finding The Glory Worldviews And Ultimate Concern:

Ultimates Robert Cummings Neville, 2013-10-01 A new theology of ultimate realities and a new theory of religion to back it up addressed to believers unbelievers and scholars of all traditions The Hope of Glory Walter Wilson, 2014-04-09 This study explores the background character and function of Colossians as a form of theological education and appeal in the Pauline tradition A historical literary rhetorical and narrative analysis of the text shows how its theological affirmations and claims were presented so as to engage the life of its readers in practical ways and in practical contexts especially in order to direct their moral formation as Christians and their self understanding as a Christian community in a time of controversy The specific strategies adopted by the author in designing his message and instructing the readers are familiar from Hellenistic conventions of moral and spiritual guidance particularly those conventions associated with philosophic paraenesis or moral exhortation for recent converts Shaping a Christian Worldview David S. Dockery, Gregory Alan Thornbury, 2002 Shaping a Christian Worldview presents a collection of essays that address the key issues facing the future of Christian higher education With contributions from key players in the field this book addresses the critical issues for Christian institutions of various traditions as the new century begins to leave its indelible mark on education Understanding Self and Others in the Postmodern World Richard E. Bailey Ph. D., 2013 Understanding Self and Others in the Postmodern World is unlike most books directed at giving people insight into themselves in that it is addressed to those who want to think about their lives relationships with others and how Western culture has arrived at the Postmodern World This book examines seven different worldviews that have become dominant for periods of time in the history of Western culture The author explains that although all worldviews share the same structure and characteristics they vary markedly in their contents Further a worldview molds those entering it after its own image Those readers 1 who identify their own assumptions about the nature of reality what it means to be a human being and the truth will gain insight into themselves And identifying the assumptions held by others on these matters will give the reader insight into them The problem in the Postmodern World is that we live and work with people who live in these different worlds That situation has invited disagreement and conflict which unresolved has led to the chaos that is characteristic of our time The solution before the nations of the West is that each citizen must grant to all others the same rights to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness he or she claims for him or herself

True North Mark Liederbach, Seth Bible, 2012-11-01. Because the Bible describes the second person of the Trinity as the key agent in creation, redemption, and the restoration of all things, it is imperative that Christians seeking conformity to the image of Christ root their understanding of and motivation for creation care in a theology and ethic that seeks to maximize the worship of Christ throughout all creation. Discussions related to creation care and environmental ethics have become both politically charged and highly controversial. Unfortunately, while a growing number of Christian books address various aspects of creation care that either support or deny the reality of global warming or perhaps advocate various policies and practices, there is very little work available seeking to focus on, clarify, and establish the biblical and theological foundations upon which Christians ought to care for God's world. Even more specifically, there seems to be almost a complete dearth of accessible works in theology or ethics that offers a Christology of creation care. Thus, the purpose of True North is to explore the person and work of Christ in creation, redemption, and the restoration of all things, so as to establish the idea that caring for God's creation depends not upon prognostications for or against a global warming crisis. Rather, the motivation for Christians to care for creation flows from the created purposes established in the very fabric of the universe: faithful discipleship in Christ and the inherent goal to return to God, all the glory he is due from every corner and aspect of creation.

Understanding the Culture Jeff Myers, 2017-03-01. Addressing issues such as gender identity, abortion, technology, and poverty, Dr. Myers challenges readers to ask: How can an authentic Christian worldview provide a compassionate, effective witness in culture today? Dr. Myers first shows readers what they can learn from Christian history and why today's issues might not be as new as they seem. Then he takes them through the significant topics that affect them every day, offering biblical ideas for conversing with others in an increasingly hostile culture. This capstone book to a groundbreaking worldview trilogy equips readers to apply a bold Christian witness to their relationships with loved ones, neighbors, and colleagues.

War Time Preaching and Teaching Jeffrey J. Richards, 2012-10-22. War Time Preaching and Teaching explores the hermeneutics, science of interpretation, and homiletics, art of preaching, of both Rudolf Bultmann and Dietrich Bonhoeffer. The book explores the thought and impact of these two theologians primarily within the American debate. Both Bultmann and Bonhoeffer are somewhat misunderstood, and it seems that they are either totally accepted or rejected, depending in many instances on one's personal understanding of their method of biblical interpretation. The book attempts to objectively view their methods of biblical interpretation and how they expressed their research in their writings preaching and teaching Both concluded that the presenting of the Gospel in a relevant manner is the ultimate need for humankind today Both lived during a most challenging period of world history but were able to communicate in a captivating manner Certainly the times in which we live today call for those who possess a similar commitment
