Habits of

Change Carole Garibaldi Rogers, 2011-06-01 A collection of extraordinary oral histories of American nuns Habits of Change captures the experiences of women whose lives over the past fifty years have been marked by dramatic transformation Bringing together women from more than forty different religious communities most of whom entered religious life before Vatican II the book shows how their lives were suddenly turned around in the 1960s perhaps more so than any other group of contemporary women Here these women speak of their active engagement in the events that disrupted their church and society and of the lives they lead today offering their unique perspective on issues such as peace activism global equality for women and the clergy sexual abuse crisis The interviewees include a Maryknoll missionary who spent decades in Africa most recently in the Congo an inner city art teacher whose own paintings reflect the vibrancy of Haiti a recovering alcoholic who at age 71 has embarked on her fourth ministry a life long nurse educator and hospital administrator and an outspoken advocate for the gay and lesbian community Told with simplicity honesty and passion their stories deserve to be heard

Vocation to Virtue Kent J. Lasnoski, Kent Lasnoski, 2022-08-05 Makes a distinctive contribution to the field of family ethics This clearly written and engaging text will provoke discussion in the classroom and among scholars of virtue ethics as it challenges widely held theological claims about marriage and understandings of the good life Theological Studies The Disciples' Call Christopher Jamison, OSB, 2013-12-05 There is currently no shared language of vocation among Catholics in the developed post modern world of Europe and North America The decline in practice of the faith and a weakened understanding of Church teaching has led to reduced numbers of people entering into marriage religious life and priesthood Uniquely this book traces the development of vocation from scriptural patristic roots through Thomism and the Reformation to engage with the modern vocational crisis How are these two approaches compatible The universal call to holiness is expressed in Lumen Gentium has been read by some as meaning that any vocational choice has the same value as any other such choice is some sense of a higher calling part of the Catholic theology of vocation or not Some claim that the single life is a vocation on a par with marriage and religious life what kind of a theology of vocation leads to that conclusion And is the secular use of the word vocation to describe certain profession helpful or misleading in the context of Catholic theology

New Feminist Christianity Mary E. Hunt, Diann L. Neu, 2012-01-01 Powerful insights from ministers theologians activists leaders artists and liturgists who are shaping the future Christianity has been a source of the oppression of women as well as a resource for unleashing women's full humanity Feminist analysis and practice have recognized this Feminist Christianity is reshaping religious institutions and religious life in more holistic inclusive and justice focused ways from the Introduction

Feminism has brought many changes to Christian religious practice From inclusive language and imagery about the Divine to an increase in the number of women ministers Christian worship will never be the same Yet even now there is a lack of substantive structural change in many churches and complacency within denominations The contributors to this book are the thought leaders who are shaping and being shaped by the emerging directions of feminist Christianity They speak from across the denominational spectrum and from the many diverse groups that make up the Christian community as it finds its place in a religiously pluralistic world Taken together their voices offer a starting point for building new models of religious life and worship Topics covered include feminist Theological Visions Scriptural Insights Ethical Agendas Liturgical and Artistic Frontiers Ministerial Challenges Buying the Field Sandra Marie Schneiders,2013 Selling All Sandra Marie Schneiders,2001 An examination of the internal reality of contemporary religious life particularly that of ministerial women religious in the first world setting through the focusing lenses of commitment consecrated celibacy and community

Embracing Solitude Bernadette Flanagan,Beverly Lanzetta,2013-11-12 Embracing Solitude focuses on the interior turn of monasticism and scans the Christian tradition for women who have made this turn in various epochs and circumstances New Monasticism is a movement assuming diverse forms in response to the turn to classical spiritual sources for guidance about living spiritual commitment with integrity and authenticity today Genuine spiritual seeking requires the cultivation of an inner disposition to return to the room of the heart The lessons explored in this book from women spiritual entrepreneurs across the centuries will benefit contemporary New Monastics both women and men The accounts will inspire challenge and guide those who follow in the footsteps of the renowned spiritual innovators profiled here The Wisdom of Creation Barbara Ellen Bowe,2004 Description There has been a growing awareness of the plight of the earth at the hands of human beings over the past several decades An important theological contribution to this discussion over the past two decades has been the work of Dianne Bergant She brings first of all a deep concern for the earth and its creatures As a professor of Hebrew Bible she also brings the contribution of the Wisdom literature of the Jewish tradition It is at the intersection of these two resources concern for the earth and the Wisdom literature that much of her work has been done The Wisdom of Creation written to honor her takes up the themes of creation and Wisdom from a variety of perspectives both biblical and theological to think along with Bergant about the challenge of caring for the earth and for those who dwell upon it The work of a theology that will contribute to the care of and the future of the earth is still in many ways in its early stages Dianne Bergant s own work on themes of wisdom creation prayer and preaching has made a significant contribution to that theology It is hoped that these essays will continue that important task of making a better world in which the next generation will grow and mature Essays and contributors are The Creatures Know by Walter Brueggemann Redeeming Gospel Feminism From Anti Judaism by Mary C Boys S N J M The Divine I Am Wisdom Motifs in the Gospel of John by Barbara E Bowe Creation as a Divine Human Collaboration by Herman E Schaalman Creation Revelation and Redemption Recovering the Biblical Tradition

Patrick,2013-07-18 This volume probes the meaning and ethical implications of the powerful symbol of vocation from the vantage of contemporary Catholic women with particular attention to the experiences of women religious Intended as a follow up to Liberating Conscience Feminist Explorations in Catholic Moral Theology the new book will benefit many readers including Catholic leaders laity and religious as well as persons interested in Christian ethics and American religious history more generally The work treats twentieth century history and more recent developments including tensions between the Vatican and progressive Catholics the development of lay ministries and the movement to ordain women deacons priests and bishops Scripture as the Soul of Theology Wilfrid J. Harrington,2005 Five Biblical scholars explore the Scriptures for insight and vision about how Christians may refashion their approach to ethics spirituality pastoral care and the ministry of women in the Church Back cover Catholic Higher Education Melanie Morey,John Piderit,2010-05-28 Today Catholic colleges and universities are dealing with critical questions about what constitutes Catholic collegiate identity Based on their research Morey and Piderit describe the present situation and offer concrete suggestions for enhancing Catholic identity culture and mission at all Catholic colleges and universities The authors define the critical issues and analyze and address them by using the rich construct of culture particularly organizational culture and they provide four different models of how Catholic colleges and universities can operate and successfully compete as religiously distinctive institutions in the higher education market Weaving Hope Janice Farnham,2020-12-01 Weaving Hope is a narrative history of one group of Catholic women religious in the United States From Quebec Canada in 1877 the Religious of Jesus and Mary arrived as missionaries to teach children of French Canadian immigrants in textile industries of New England Their ministry spread to New York Maryland the South and the West Primarily educators they directed academies and parish schools In the South and Southwest they added pastoral outreach to their educational ministry With few resources the sisters overcame diverse challenges to create a network of service from coast to coast This book presents the challenges they faced from local hierarchy and clergy as well as ethnic prejudices language difficulties classism and financial insecurity Their faith and bold courage are displayed in this vibrant tapestry of a small but significant piece of women s history in our nation A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P,2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being

Aquinas Academy 1945-2015 Julie Thorpe, 2016-06-30 This book tells the stories of women and men of the Aquinas Academy a centre of adult education in Sydney founded in 1945 by an Australian Marist priest Austin Woodbury The book places the personal narratives within the social cultural and intellectual landscape of Australian Catholicism spanning seven decades Chapters trace the founding vision of the academy as a Catholic institution of higher education affiliated with Saint Thomas Aquinas s university in Rome the expansion of programmes of adult spirituality across the eastern Australian states and the growing place of contemplative and mystical prayer in a church rediscovering its spiritual core Combining archival research and conversations with former students and staff about childhood war family and the struggles to make sense of losses and loves the Aquinas Academy is a story ultimately about adults learning to grow up

The New Nuns Amy L. Koehlinger, 2007-04-30 In the 1960s a number of Catholic women in the U S abandoned traditional apostolic works to experiment with new and often unprecedented forms of service among non Catholics Koehlinger explores this phenomenon through close examination of one of its most visible forms the experience of white sisters working in African American communities

Power of Sisterhood Margaret Cain McCarthy, Mary Ann Zollmann, 2014-09-24 In 2008 the Vatican Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life initiated an Apostolic Visitation to examine the quality of life of women religious in the United States Power of Sisterhood Women Religious Tell the Story of the Apostolic Visitation serves as an historical record of the event and describes the experience of the women who participated in it This book initiated by a group of women in leadership in their communities during this unprecedented time grew out of a survey that gleaned the essence of the experience from as many congregations of women religious as possible After framing the Visitation as a story situating it in an historical and theological context tracing its chronology and detailing the experience as revealed in the survey the book delves into the deeper meaning of the Visitation for women religious as they experienced it and as they move into the future
