

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a red brick building. On the left side, a black metal fire escape is visible, with its stairs and railings extending upwards. A window with multiple panes is situated above the fire escape. In the foreground, a large, vibrant red cloth is draped and billows across the lower half of the image, partially obscuring the building and the text below. The cloth has a soft, flowing texture and is a deep red color.
