Finding Christ In The Old Testament:

Finding Christ in the Old Testament: Searching Out How the Early Church Supported the Doctrines of Christ from only the Old Testament William Waddell, PhD., ThD., 2014-10-13 So the modern believer may be encouraged to search out Jesus not only in the New Testament but also in the Old The early church even though they had only the Old Testament did not lack in Scriptural backing when they preached and taught about Jesus The modern church should be as well armed having both the Old and New Testament at its disposal Beginning at Moses Michael P. V. Barrett, 2018-08-15 For many Christians today the Old Testament is difficult to understand seems outdated and has questionable relevance But as Old Testament scholar Michael Barrett points out all Scripture is inspired by the Holy Spirit and we must read it by faith seeing that Christ is the key to unlocking the Old Testament s message With great knowledge of and contagious passion for the Old Testament the author shows readers how to identify basic characteristics of Christ and where to look for Him throughout the Old Testament The author challenges us God s promise throughout the Bible is that those who seek Him will find Him Beginning at Moses and ending with Malachi we want to be on Christ alert Table of Contents Part 1 Whom to Look For 1 Jesus the Messiah 2 The Person of Christ 3 The Work of Christ Part 2 Where to Look 4 Christ in the Covenants 5 Christ in Person 6 Christ in His Names 7 Christ in Word Prophecy 8 Christ in Picture Prophecy Explained 9 Christ in Picture Prophecy Illustrated 10 Christ in Song Finding Christ in the Old Testament Benjamin M. Goforth Jr, 2018-04-04 We will never grasp God without Jesus Be careful that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit based on human tradition based on the elements of the world rather than Christ For the entire fullness of God s nature dwells bodily in Christ Colossians 2 8 9 So much time is wasted people trying to explain the world without God and God without Jesus but you can t do it The same of the New Testament is true of the Old Testament If you don t study the Old Testament your understanding of the New Testament is stunted So taking it a step further if you don t look for Jesus in the Old Testament you are missing the point of the revelation found within it This study doesn t seek to be an exhaustive treatment of the subject There are certainly things I have left out types I have not examined theophanies we don t fully examine and certainly prophecies we couldn t study However this is intended to teach and inspire to deeper study Look closely in virtually every story instruction and prophesy the point is Jesus Now we COULD say that all of these similarities are incidental analogical interesting but not intentional Or we could believe that God always was telling a story HIS Story is always being told in History and so he shaped History to tell HIS Story If so then we can conclude that God intentionally told his story through types even when we did not understand them while they were happening On my first day of The History of Western Civilization in college Dr Goode our professor said This is History This means it is HIS story History is about God So look for

Finding Christ in the Old Testament John Priddle, 2011

Finding Christ in the Old Testament

Through the Aramaic Memra, Shekinah, and Yeqara of the Targums Adam Joseph Howell, 2015 This dissertation seeks to find Christ in the Old Testament by examining the targumic passages in which Memra Shekinah or Yeqara occur as God's agent or manifestation Chapter 1 demonstrates that scholars view the Memra Shekinah and Yeqara as agents for God or manifestations of God even though many scholars reject the notion of Christological implications found in the New Testament appropriation of these terms and concepts Chapter 2 discusses the close connection between the targumic Memra Shekinah and Yeqara and the New Testament by citing clear instances where the New Testament authors appropriated targumic terms and concepts to speak of Jesus By using targumic terms and concepts the New Testament authors provided an exegetical method for finding Christ in the Old Testament through Targum Chapter 3 examines the occurrences of Memra presenting examples of passages that certainly refer to Christ do not refer to Christ and probably refer to Christ In this chapter the Memra refers to Christ or probably refers to Christ when the Memra functions as God's agent carrying out God's work in the world Chapter 4 investigates the occurrences of Shekinah and Yeqara but under the influence of the New Testament nearly all of the occurrences of Shekinah and most occurrences of Yeqara refer to Jesus Shekinah and Yeqara are delineated into categories of occurrences that refer to God's manifestation and God's manifestation with agency Even though most occurrences of Shekinah and Yeqara refer to Christ some occurrences of Yeqara are a literal translation of the Hebrew and do not refer to Jesus Chapter 5 concludes the dissertation by tying several themes together to show the consistency and validity of finding Christ in the Old Testament through Aramaic terms and concepts This dissertation argues that when the Memra Shekinah or Yeqara appear as God's agent's or as manifestations of God one may find Christ in those Old Testament passages One may find Christ in these passages because the New Testament authors present Jesus as the premier agent and manifestation of God using targumic terms and concepts
