Finding Paradise

Francis Wrangham

Finding Paradise:

Jane Marie,2010-07 Her goal is to seek the truth of her life by understanding and accepting the choices she makes Her feelings and thoughts about the past present and future are poignantly written and shared in her story The pitfalls and inconstancy during her childhood ultimately shape who she is but her choices in adulthood would prove to be more demanding of her best efforts Her adventurous and courageous spirit is her guiding force as she flounders through life desperately seeking her waters of peace and balance She is persistently striving for purpose and meaning Despite a multitude of obstacles losses and responsibilities throughout her life she bravely clings To The hope of true happiness by openly sharing her stories of challenge She does this with the curiosity to learn not only about life And The people around her but especially about herself with optimism adventure enthusiasm and rediscovery She is not unlike many who face adversity in life but she finds that her final revelation about herself will be the one challenge that will ultimately test her true mettle

Intermedial Art Practices as

Cultural Resilience Lindsay Blair,Camille Manfredi,2024-09-20 This innovative collection of essays is focused on the idea of transmedialization the ways that the traditional forms of the predominantly oral cultures of Scotland and Brittany poetry song and story can be transformed by the use of hybrid forms and new digital technologies The volume invites readers from a range of disciplines music art literature history cultural memory studies anthropology or media studies to consider how an intermedial aesthetics of the edge can enable these distinctive cultures to thrive The languages of both cultures are presently endangered and the essays seek to connect notions of language with a culture which can align its traditions with the concerns of the present day The collection proceeds from a conceptual analysis of poetry film peripheral vision and the concerns of peripheral communities to an examination of inventive practices in the film poem experimental video film portrait word image digitised music sound image and genre contestant narratives The collection also includes contributions from creative practitioners who utilize a range of hybrid forms to revitalize the traditional vernacular cultures of Scotland and Brittany The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history literature film studies media studies music cultural theory and philosophy

The Only Mind Worth Having Gardner Fiona, 2016-11-24 In The Only Mind Worth Having Fiona Gardner takes Thomas Merton's belief that the child mind is the only mind worth having and explores it in the context of Jesus' challenging paradoxical and enigmatic command to become like small children She demonstrates how Merton's belief and Jesus' command can be understood as part of contemporary spirituality and spiritual practice To follow Christ's command requires a great leap of the imagination Gardner examines what it might mean to make this leap when one is an adult without it becoming sentimental and mawkish or regressive and pathological Using both psychological and spiritual insights and drawing on the experiences of Thomas Merton and others Gardner suggests that in some mysterious and paradoxical way recovering a sense of childhood spirituality is the path towards spiritual maturity The move from childhood spirituality to adulthood and on to a spiritual maturity through the child mind is a move from innocence to experience to organised innocence or from dependence to independence to a state of being in dependence with God
