

A person wearing a pink cap and dark athletic wear is running away from the camera on a light-colored dirt path. The path winds through a hilly landscape with green vegetation and some rocky patches. In the background, there are rolling hills under a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The entire image is framed by a white double-line border.

Shakespeare as a Way of Life shows how reading Shakespeare helps us to live with epistemological weakness and even to practice this weakness to make it a way of life In a series of close readings Kuzner shows how Hamlet Lucrece Othello The Winter s Tale The Tempest and Timon of

Athens impel us to grapple with basic uncertainties how we can be free whether the world is abundant whether we have met the demands of love and social life To Kuzner Shakespeare s skepticism doesn t have the enabling potential of Keats s heroic negativity capability but neither is that skepticism the corrosive disease that necessarily issues in tragedy While sensitive to both possibilities Kuzner offers a way to keep negative capability negative while making skepticism livable Rather than light the way to empowered liberal subjectivity Shakespeare s works demand lasting disorientation demand that we practice the impractical so as to reshape the frames by which we view and negotiate the world The act of reading Shakespeare cannot yield the practical value that cognitive scientists and literary critics attribute to it His work neither clarifies our sense of ourselves or of the world nor heartens us about the human capacity for insight and invention nor sharpens our ability to appreciate and adjudicate complex problems of ethics and politics Shakespeare s plays rather yield cognitive discomforts and it is just these discomforts that make them worthwhile Meditation as a Way of Life Alan L

Reclaiming the Life We Lost Along the Way John Paterson, 2014-11-21 We ve been sold a bill of goods Not out of malice but out of a fundamental misunderstanding of how to effectively approach our lives and the world in order to secure the genuine happiness and authentic loving relationships we desire In Reclaiming the Life We Lost Along the Way we discover that at the heart of every decision we make is the intention to reduce our suffering and satisfy our unmet yearnings Authentic love safety acceptance connection belonging meaning purpose value appreciation These are the shared desires of every human being To meet these desires we have invested tremendous effort yet the quality of life we have sought continues to elude us The reason is shockingly simple We have attempted to resolve an internal problem with external solutions The outside world can never satisfy our deepest longings until our inner world makes a critical shift in perception and orientation When this internal shift occurs our experience of everything outside of us begins to change as well This is the key to realizing
