Scholars in the Marketplace. The Dilemmas of Neo-Liberal Reform at Makerere University, 1989-2005

Mahmood Mamdani, 2007-09-15 Scholars in the Marketplace is a case study of market based reforms at Uganda's Makerere University With the World Bank heralding neoliberal reform at Makerere as the model for the transformation of higher education in Africa it has implications for the whole continent At the global level the Makerere case exemplifies the fate of public universities in a market oriented and capital friendly era The Makerere reform began in the 1990s and was based on the premise that higher education is more of a private than a public good Instead of pitting the public against the private and the state against the market this book shifts the terms of the debate toward a third alternative than explores different relations between the two The book distinguishes between privatisation and commercialisation two processes that drove the Makerere reform It argues that whereas privatisation the entry of privately sponsored students is compatible with a public university where priorities are publicly set commercialisation financial and administrative autonomy for each faculty to design a market responsive curriculum inevitably leads to a market determination of priorities in a public university The book warns against commercialisation of public universities as the subversion of public institutions for private purposes

Fraser, Mustafa Ozbilgin, 2007-03-30 Arts Marketing focuses on a variety of sectors within the arts and addresses the way in which marketing principles are applied within these outlining both the similarities and the differences that occur Relating policy to practice this contributed text demonstrates the most effective means of marketing in specific areas of the arts with each chapter having been written by a specialist in the field Although primarily focusing on the UK market the subject has global relevance and appeal and policy is evaluated on national European and supranational levels Specialist topics dealt with range from the marketing of the theatre opera and museums through to the film industry and popular music

Macromarketing: A Canadian Perspective Donald N. Thompson, Patricia Simmie, Louise Heslop, Stanley J. Shapiro, 2011-10-15 Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders Art and the Global Economy John Zarobell, 2017-04-18 Introduction measuring the economy of the arts Museums in flux The exhibitionary complex Art and the global marketplace Conclusion non profits and artist collectives as market alternatives Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace Scott Oldenburg, Kristin M. S. Bezio, 2021-10-28 Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines to examine the intersection conflict and confluence of religion and the market before 1700 Each chapter analyzes the unique interplay of faith and economy in a different locale Syria Ethiopia France Iceland India Peru and beyond In ten case studies specialists of archaeology art history social and economic history religious studies and critical theory address issues of secularization tolerance colonialism and race with a fresh focus They chart the tensions between religious and economic thought in specific locales or texts the complex ways that religion and economy interacted with one another and the way in which matters of faith economy and race converge in religious images of the pre and early modern periods Considering the intersection of faith and economy the volume questions the legacy of early modern economic and spiritual exceptionalism and the ways in which prosperity still entangles itself with righteousness The interdisciplinary nature means that this volume is the perfect resource for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and scholars working across multiple areas including history literature

politics art history global studies philosophy and gender studies in the medieval and early modern periods The Routledge Companion to Arts Marketing Daragh O'Reilly, Ruth Rentschler, Theresa Kirchner, 2013-12-17 The relationship between the arts and marketing has been growing ever more complex as the proliferation of new technologies and social media has opened up new forms of communication This book covers the broad and involved relationship between the arts and marketing It frames arts marketing in the context of wider related issues such as the creative and cultural industries cultural policy and arts funding developments in the different art forms and the impact of environmental forces on arts business models and markets The Routledge Companion to Arts Marketing provides a comprehensive up to date reference guide that incorporates current analyses of arts marketing topics by leaders of academic research in the field As such it will be a key resource for the next generation of arts marketing scholars and teachers and will constitute the single most authoritative guide on the subject internationally The Sociology of Arts and Markets Andrea Glauser, Patricia Holder, Thomas Mazzurana, Olivier Moeschler, Valérie Rolle, Franz Schultheis, 2020-06-15 This edited collection offers an in depth analysis of the complex and changing relationship between the arts and their markets Highly relevant to almost any sociological exploration of the arts this interaction has long been approached and studied However rapid and far reaching economic changes have recently occurred Through a number of new empirical case studies across multiple artistic historic and geographical settings this volume illuminates the developments of various art markets and their sociological analyses The contributions include chapters on artistic recognition and exclusion integration and self representation in the art market sociocultural changes the role of the gallery owner and collectives rankings and constraints across the cultural industries Drawing on research from Japan Switzerland France Italy China the US UK and more this rich and global perspective challenges current debates surrounding art and markets and will be an important reference point for scholars and students across the sociology of arts cultural sociology and culture economy Art Markets and Digital Histories Claartje Rasterhoff, Sandra van Ginhoven, 2020-03-16 This Special Issue of Arts investigates the use of digital methods in the study of art markets and their histories As historical and contemporary data is rapidly becoming more available and digital technologies are becoming integral to research in the humanities and social sciences we sought to bring together contributions that reflect on the different strategies that art market scholars employ to navigate and negotiate digital techniques and resources The essays in this issue cover a wide range of topics and research questions Taken together the essays offer a reflection on what takes to research art markets which includes addressing difficult topics such as the nature of the research questions and the data available to us and the conceptual aspects of art markets in order to define and operationalize variables and to interpret visual and statistical patterns for scholarship In our view this discussion is enriched when also taking into account how to use shared or interoperable ontologies and vocabularies to define concepts and relationships that facilitate the use and exchange of linked open data for cultural heritage and historical research

Posthumous Art, Law and the Art Market Sharon Hecker, Peter J. Karol, 2022-04-29 This book takes an interdisciplinary transnational and cross cultural approach to reflect on critically examine and challenge the surprisingly robust practice of making art after death in an artist's name through the lenses of scholars from the fields of art history economics and law as well as practicing artists Works of art conceived as multiples such as sculptures etchings prints photographs and conceptual art can be and often are remade from original models and plans long after the artist has passed Recent sales have suggested a growing market embrace of posthumous works contemporaneous with questioning on the part of art history Legal norms seem unready for this surge in posthumous production and are beset by conflict across jurisdictions Non Western approaches to posthumous art from Chinese emulations of non living artists to Native American performances take into account rituals of generational passage at odds with contemporary market driven approaches The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history the art market art law art management museum studies and economics

The Golden Crossroads Marco Bevolo, 2015-12-11 This book looks at the field of fine arts design and culture as an alternative source of inspiration for ways to work It is a book about a better future for brand marketing and business leadership thanks to the dreams and the visions of artists designers and other creative industry leaders

Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace James Wenley, 2020-10-18 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace offers a case study of how the theatre of Aotearoa has toured represented and marketed itself on the global stage How has New Zealand work attempted to stand out differentiate itself and get seen by audiences internationally This book examines the journeys of a dynamic range of culturally and theatrically innovative works created by Aotearoa New Zealand theatre makers that have toured and been performed across time place and theatrical space from Moana Oceania to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe from a M ori Shakespeare adaptation to an immersive zombie theatre experience Drawing on postcolonialism transnationalism cosmopolitanism and globality to understand how Aotearoa New Zealand has imagined and conceived of itself through drama the author investigates how these representations might be read and received by audiences around the world variously reinforcing and complicating conceptions of New Zealand national identity Developing concepts of theatrical mobility portability and the market this study engages with the whole theatrical enterprise as a play travels from concept and scripting through to funding marketing performance and the critical response by reviewers and commentators This book will be of global interest to academics producers and theatre artists as a significant resource for the theory and practice of theatre touring and cross cultural performance and reception

How to Market the Arts Anthony Rhine, Jay Pension, 2022 Conventional business marketing often suggests that the primary function of business is to market a product in order to maximize efficiency and profit In How to Market the Arts A Practical Approach for the 21st Century expert authors Anthony Rhine and Jay Pension propose a new paradigm to better explain how nonprofit arts marketing can and should work How to Market the Arts provides a history of both nonprofit arts and critical marketing concepts to show how standard methods of marketing are ill suited for the nonprofit arts industry Through visual models and case studies of several arts organizations the book offers instead a practical look at how this industry might adopt more holistic marketing strategies that better reflect their true function which is often to serve communities over persuading consumers Rhine and Pension offer a theoretical framework for reconsidering the nature of nonprofit arts marketing as well as useful steps an organization might take to increase its value to a community and develop a broader audience base

Wilhelm Bode and the Art Market, 2022-12-05 The professional career and success of Wilhelm Bode 1845 1929 relied on the business of connoisseurship Like other contemporary art historians involved in the commerce of art he was entangled in the reciprocal dynamics and interdependencies of the nascent discipline of art history connoisseurship and the art trade The volume introduces new material and a fresh perspective on Bode's strategic participation in the Western art market exposing the particular consequences of these entanglements on the birth of the art historical canon and showcasing his complex agency within the art marketplace of the late nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries
