Hills End Ivan Southall, 2013-05-22 First published in 1962 Hills End is regarded as a turning point in Australian children s literature paving the way for much subsequent Australian adventure fiction On a fateful day in Hills End a timber milling town in the mountains of Victoria seven children and their teacher set off to explore caves in the nearby mountains said to contain ancient Aboriginal rock art While they are deep inside the mountain caves a storm of tremendous violence all but sweeps the town away and threatens to leave them stranded on the mountain Tackling flooded creeks and washed out paths and fallen trees the children make their way back to Hills End injured and exhausted only to face a new battle to survive in the denuded town Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children s Books Council Book of the Year on three occasions He wrote over 60 books in his lifetime and has been published in 23 different countries He died in 2008 textclassics.com.au The author has the power to get inside his characters and through them express his faith in human nature in the goodness of man a solid work strong in action mood and discipline New York Times A book that has haunted me for years Ramona Koval By the Book I would highly recommend this novel for both children and adults as the vivid imagery which Southall creates is something which is not as prominent in today s literature I believe that it is important for young people to read books like this as they encourage a love for the written word something which is often neglected these days ReadPlus review blog

Cripple Creek Days Mabel Barbee Lee, 1984-01-01 Mabel Barbee Lee has written a rousing tale of early days in Cripple Creek Colorado She speaks with authority because she arrived there as a child in 1892 and with wide eyed wonder saw the whole place turn to gold With his divining rod Mabel s father tapped gold ore on Beacon Hill but missed becoming a millionaire by selling his claim short Nonetheless life was rich for young Mabel in a booming town with points of interest like Poverty Gulch the Continental Hotel and a fantastic house called Finn s Folly with characters around like the promoter Windy Joe and seen from a distance the madam Pearl De Vere with something always going on whether a celebration or a disastrous fire or train wreck or a no nonsense miners strike Mabel Lee's book brings back a time and place with affection The foreword is by Lowell Thomas who was her pupil when she was a young schoolmarm in Cripple Creek One of the most fascinating accounts of a gold rush town Chicago Sunday Tribune More entertaining by far than the run of fictional westerns more authentic of course and a great deal more moving W M Teller Saturday Review Finn's Folly Ivan Southall,2003 To the Wild Sky Ivan Southall,2014-04-23 Winner Australian Children's Book of the Year 1967 No one had talked about fuel what was the use of talking anyway But they all knew that engines which run on fuel have to run out of fuel sometime and that the Egret just couldn't keep on going for ever They seemed to have been sitting in this plane imprisoned for days waiting to die Gerald just flew on and on as though he wanted to fly away to another world almost as though he didn't want to go down almost as though he didn't know how to go down When the Egret's pilot dies suddenly mid flight six teenagers the only passengers on board face a terrifying situation Gerald has had some flying lessons but he has never flown alone and he has never landed a plane Lost and afraid they fly on as the fuel gauge drops and night closes in Will they find a clear landing place Could they land in the sea If they do somehow land safely how will they find their way back to civilisation Ivan Southall's To the Wild Sky is a breathtaking adventure real kids facing a very real danger with no one but themselves to rely on Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children's Book Council Book of the Year on three occasions An icon of Australian children's literature he wrote over sixty books in his lifetime and has been published in twenty three different countries He died in 2008 The book that shines brightest is Ivan Southall's To the Wild Sky This was a proudly Australian story and the first novel to utterly confound me by denying the usual happy ever after That was the moment I first understood the magic an author has in their hands Tim Pegler author of Five Parts Dead Wicked Cripple Creek District Jan MacKell Collins,2024-10-07 Malice in a Mining Mecca Pernicious activity tends to follow prosperity and the heyday of the Cripple Creek mining district was no exception Cripple Creek's first murder spilled out from a saloon in 1892 The 1894 heist at the Victor Hotel took place mere months after opening Railroad superintendent Richard Newell was gunned down over a construction right of way dispute a contentious nationwide issue to this day By 1893 the area was home to dancehall girls and prostitutes including the harlot who burned down Cripple Creek in 1896 and the vixen who torched Victor in 1899 From body snatcher Pretty Jack McEachern to conman turned Roosevelt confidante Ben Daniels the district played host to a cast of capricious characters Join author Jan MacKell Collins as she recounts the colorful camps and raucous ruffians that defined the oft described Wild West Cripple Creek District Jan MacKell,2003 The Cripple Creek District on the back of Pikes Peak in central Colorado first found fame through Bob Womack the cowboy who publicized his knowledge of gold in the high country and drew thousands to the area Gold fever allowed the region to flourish while strikes fires and economic hardships threatened the district's survival The dwindling population's fortitude plus innovative ideas to boost the economy carried the city from a struggling gold miners paradise to a favored tourist spot      Ash Road Ivan Southall, 2013-09-25 The best selling Ash Road is an action packed adventure story so evocative of rural Australia you can taste the Eucalyptus It s hot dry and sweaty on Ash Road where Graham Harry and Wallace are getting their first taste of independence camping just the three of them When they accidentally light a bushfire no one would have guessed how far it would go All along Ash Road fathers go off to fight the fires and mothers help in the first aid centres The children of Prescott are left alone presumed safe until it s the fire itself that reaches them These children are forced to face a major crisis with only each other and the two old men left in their care Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children s Book Council Book of the Year on three occasions An icon of Australian children s literature he wrote over sixty books in his lifetime and has been published in twenty three different countries He died in 2008      Written for Children John Rowe Townsend, 1996-05-01 This revised and updated edition provides children s and young adult librarians teachers literature classes and library school classes with an authoritative history and analysis of the best British and American children s literature through 1994 with a new 2003 postscript including such recent phenomenons as J K Rowling and Philip Pullman Written for Children traces the development of children s literature from its origins through the beginnings of the multimedia revolution In effortless and entertaining style Townsend a world renowned authority in the field examines the changing attitudes toward children and their literature and analyzes the various strands that make up this important field While examining many well known American classics Townsend also looks at British works that American audiences may have overlooked With illustrations and bibliography      The Cripple Creek District , 2011 As one of the last major boomtowns created from gold rushes in Colorado s Rocky Mountains the Cripple Creek District located just west of Pikes Peak became home to thousands of men women and children from dozens of nationalities the world over They struggled to establish homes in the rugged and sometimes inhospitable environment of high altitude gold camp life The need for a modicum of civilization s amenities in this roughneck enclave which eventually became the Teller County seat was stunted by mining s inherent injuries and illness the harsh mountain winters great fires that destroyed many area towns and debilitating labor strikes More than a century of pioneer living is represented in this evocative tour through famous and infamous local history from the early settlers to the descendants and residents who still call the Cripple Creek District home      A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense      The Loved and the Lost Stephany Evans Steggall, 2006 Ivan Southall is one of Australia s most famous and most loved children s authors His books have influenced entire generations of children and his name is synonymous with the best of Australian children s literature However the man behind the work was a dark figure prone to moodiness and with an extraordinary life that makes captivating reading      The British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford, 2018-10-24 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent societal constraints of his era fuel the narrative's depth and authenticity. Phineas Finn is a compelling read for those interested in the intersections of politics, identity, and morality. Its themes remain relevant today, providing modern readers with insight into the timeless dilemmas of ambition and ethics in public life.
