Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15 Ana's Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

The Making of a Counter-culture Icon Maria R. Bloshteyn, 2007-01-01 At first glance the works of Fedor Dostoevsky 1821 1881 do not appear to have much in common with those of the controversial American writer Henry Miller 1891 1980 However the influencer of Dostoevsky on Miller was in fact enormous and shaped the latter's view of the world of literature and of his own writing The Making of a Counter Culture Icon examines the obsession that Miller and his contemporaries the so called Villa Seurat circle had with Dostoevsky and the impact that this obsession had on their own work Renowned for his psychological treatment of characters Dostoevsky became a model for Miller Lawrence Durrell and Anais Nin interested as they were in developing a new kind of writing that would move beyond staid literary conventions Maria Bloshteyn argues that as Dostoevsky was concerned with representing the individual's perception of the self and the world he became an archetype for Miller and the other members of the Villa Seurat circle writers who were interested in precise psychological characterizations as well as intriguing narratives Tracing the cross cultural appropriation and mis interpretation of Dostoevsky's methods and philosophies by Miller Durrell and Nin The Making of a Counter Culture Icon gives invaluable insight into the early careers of the Villa Seurat writers and testifies to Dostoevsky's influence on twentieth century literature

Daily Modernism Elizabeth Podnieks, 2000-01-26 Redrawing established boundaries between genres Podnieks builds a broad critical and theoretical range on which she maps the diary as an aesthetic work showing how diaries inscribe the aesthetics of literary modernisms Drawing on feminist theory literary history biography and personal anecdotes she argues that the diary is an especially subversive space for women writers Podnieks details how Virginia Woolf Antonia White Elizabeth Smart and Anais Nin wrote their diaries under the pretence that they were private while always intending them to be published She travelled extensively to examine the original diary manuscripts and offers unique first hand descriptions of the manuscripts that underscore the artistic intentions of their authors Daily Modernism contributes to the ongoing feminist revision of literary history and in its disruption of traditional concepts of major and minor literary forms paves the way for a much needed reconsideration of the diary as a valid literary achievement Recollections of Anaïs Nin Benjamin Franklin, 1996 Recollections of Anaïs Nin presents Nin through the eyes of twenty six people who knew her She is the unconventional distant aunt the thoughtful friend the owner of a strangely disarming voice the author eager for attention yet hypersensitive to criticism the generous advisor to a literary magazine the adulteress the beautiful septuagenarian the recommender of books the contributors elaborate on these and many other perceptions of Nin Readers of this book will meet one of the most enigmatic literary women of the twentieth century
