Congress. House. Select Committee on Children, Youth, and Families,1993 This hearing chaired by Representative Patricia Schroeder was held to find ways to reduce the number of deaths and injuries that result from fires

Testimony or prepared statements were given by Representatives Schroeder Michael Bilirakis Romano Mazzoli and Curt Weldon as well as nine other individuals involved in fire safety issues including professional fire fighters members of fire safety groups and concerned citizens It was noted that the United States has one of the highest per capita fire death rates in the world with roughly 6 000 fire deaths each year Young children are at great risk of death and injury due to fire burns with nearly 1 400 child fatalities and 14 000 serious injuries each year due to fires The monetary costs of fires are tremendous with over 50 billion spent each year on property losses medical and insurance costs fire department expenditures and fire protection costs Careless smoking and playing with fire cause the most harm to children Poverty and poor living conditions increase the risk of fire death and injury Smoke detectors and other safety devices greatly reduce the chances of dying in a fire Despite the effectiveness of such safety devices more preventive and educational measures are needed MDM Fire Safety United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Competitiveness,1992 Children of the Green Hannah E. Johnston,2014-05-30 Children of the Green is an in depth consideration of child raising from within pagan spirituality Written by a long time pagan witch educator and parent it considers the deeper questions of raising children within pagan spirituality and the building of community for pagan families Taking a unique approach Children of the Green focuses not solely on sharing the festivals and celebratory cycles of paganism but also discusses the moral ethical and practical issues of raising kids as pagans from working with schools handling family changes and crises child development from a pagan perspective and facing the challenges of a changing world Fire Safety Education Resource Directory Barry Leonard,1998-10 This compendium of materials will be useful in building and supplementing a public education program for fire safety Lists a wide range of programs videotapes booklets manuals pamphlets brochures program kits and web sites that are available from diverse sources throughout the U S There are 13 categories burn and scald prevention CPR and first aid electrical hazards escape plans and drills fire and the elderly fire extinguishers fire safety and the disabled flammable fabrics residences residential fire inspections and home safety fire safety programs for schools and day care programs smoke detectors and other programs Fire Angels Elizabeth Kern,2016-11-01 This heartbreakingly engrossing novel explores the true events surrounding the Our Lady of the Angels school fire in 1958 Chicago Foreword Reviews Three weeks before Christmas on December 1 1958 one of the most horrific fires in American history broke out at Our Lady of the Angels elementary school in Chicago claiming the lives of ninety two children and three nuns Fire Angels is a fictional account of that fire It s a story of arson of bravery by parents nuns firefighters and medical professionals of a falsely accused janitor of a cover up within the Catholic Church of a judge who in having to determine the juvenile arsonist s fate is torn between loyalty to his church and justice of a tight knit community changed forever and of two survivors who fall in love Fire itself is also a central character in this story a cunning observer that comes to life whenever a flame is lit Llewellyn's 2016 Magical Almanac Llewellyn,2015-09-01 Llewellyn s Magical

Fire Education Planning , The Chenango Kid Roger K. Miller,2012-02 Two narratives intertwine in The Chenango Kid One is the personal story of the author Roger Miller who grew up on Chenango Street a main artery of the medium sized industrial city of Binghamton New York in the 1950s The second is the larger story of the 1950s Each narrative enlarges upon the other Many elements make up the personal a devastating house fire a single mother who liked to work and to frequent taverns a father mystified by life less devoted to work than to benignly stalking his son a half sister long unknown a drunken and or crazy uncle or two a boyhood paradise in the hills of Pennsylvania and a passion for reading and art All in all an unconventionally conventional working class youth The Chenango Kid also connects Chenango Street to the wider world of the Fifties a vibrant explosive decade in art literature music movies and television making it The Decade That Never Ends The popular culture of no other ten year span in the century continues to exert its influence as strongly or to be revived as often as that of the 1950s

Fire Management Notes ,1999 Fire and Iron Andrew Grey,2025-01-07 Gregory Montrose and Fillian O Connell grew up next door with a tall fence separating their families Fillian now a state trooper grew up with plenty of love and little else looking over the fence at the neighbor s pool he never got to swim in His family barely made ends meet and he worked hard for everything he has including making it to the police academy and graduating at the top of his class and landing a posting in the Carlisle area Electrician Gregory had everything growing up at least on the surface but it was for appearances He looked over the fence at the family who did everything together and listened to his parents fighting most nights His parents made sure he had all the advantages money could buy but little else When a domestic disturbance call reunites them both men have changed and yet they are so very different Fillian has the life he s always wanted and Gregory is struggling to raise his niece and nephew Attraction is a surprise for both of them and as heat builds between them family disasters threaten to either blow them apart or forge them stronger like steel
