Fire on the Mountain: Addressing Idolatry Riaan Engelbrecht,2023-08-21 There is a fire on the mountain It is a wildfire of apostasy tearing through the church fuelled by idolatry It is because of the winds of false doctrine that this wildfire keeps spreading and it has been causing massive damage for hundreds of years to the church Yet the fire is not being checked addressed or effectively extinguished by believers The fire of apostasy has been receiving plenty of fuel for the last 1800 or so years to be a raging inferno Yes there is a profane fire burning on the altars build on the spiritual high places An increasing level of idolatry and spiritual apostasy plagues the world and the church The fire of idolatry has swept through churches for a long time consuming and destroying It is the profane fire An unholy fire Who shall contain the fire It is time for the church to earnestly address idolatry in her midst for idolatry is an abomination in the eyes of God God alone shall be worshipped He should be our highest devotion and our heart s desire above all Idolatry is not a trivial matter as Israel discovered God is calling for concerted and real action from the church to address idolatry for our God is a jealous God and He is an all consuming fire He must be our First Love nothing else and certainly no one else including the self

raises the important question of how much the usage of certain ideological strategies actually helps the ex colonized writer deal effectively with post colonial and post independence trauma and whether or not the choice of a particular genre or mode employed by a writer presupposes the extent to which that writer will be successful in challenging the ideological strategies of containment perpetuated by most Western orientalist texts and writers She argues that the formal or generic choices of the four writers studied here reveal that they are using genre as an ideological strategy of liberation to help free their peoples and cultures from the hegemonic strategies of containment imposed upon them She concludes that the works studied here constitute an ideological rebuttal of Western writers denigrating containment of non Western cultures She also notes that self criticism as implied in Rushdie s works is not be confused with self hatred a theme found in Naipaul s work
