His Touch on the Mouths Seock-Tae Sohn, 2018-11-19 At Pentecost there was no fire The divided tongues like fire came down to each one of the disciples and they spoke different languages so that all the people there could understand what they said without translators In the OT times God appointed his prophets by touching their mouths and putting his word into their mouths so that they might declare it to his people Therefore a prophet was the spokesman of God and is usually called the mouth of the Lord Jesus called the Word as well as God came into this world as the great prophet for the ministry of the word He taught the kingdom of God to his people and trained his disciples to be prophets after his departure The risen Christ appointed his disciples to be prophets giving them the ministerial task of the word and asking the Father to seal them as his prophets Thus the baptism of the Holy Spirit was the installation ceremony for the disciples to be the new covenant prophets as it was for the prophets of OT times The disciples were to go out to the ends of the earth to proclaim his word Those baptized by water are simultaneously baptized by the Holy Spirit and are given the office of the new covenant prophet

The Third Force in Missions Paul Anthony Pomerville, 2022-05-03 The Third Force in Missions challenges readers to recognize the indispensable role of the Holy Spirit as power for mission It confronts the Western mentality that ignores the miraculous in its missions strategy and the global Pentecostal movement Paul Pomerville suggests that such activity prompted and controlled by the Spirit is key to fruitful biblical missions When The Third Force in Missions was first published in 1985 Paul Pomerville sought to draw attention to the Pentecostal contribution to missions At that time he argued there was an information gap regarding the size of this movement in spite of two waves of worldwide Pentecostal renewal He argued that this gap existed because of evangelical bias against Pentecostalism bias against charismatics in mainline churches ethnocentrism toward Pentecostals in the developing world and faulty reporting Thirty years later Pomerville once again argues the importance of the global Pentecostal movement seeking to correct the ongoing tunnel vision of world missions programs which since the Protestant Reformation have tended to ignore the Holy Spirit's work in today's missions In this book Pomerville exposes the serious methodological and theological flaws of such a one-sided position
