Fire On Parliament Hill:

Fire on Parliament Hill! Jane Varkaris, Lucile Finsten, 1988 The Other Side of the Hill Don Nixon, PhD, 2012 When tourists visit Canada's Parliament Hill they see the beautiful Parliament Buildings and the Mounted Police in their world famous uniforms and if they want they can tune in their televisions and watch the politicians arguing on Question Period. This is one side of the Hill but there is another side, a side filled with behind the scenes stories. If you are interested in learning about the terrible discomfort our hard working politicians had to endure in the hot smelly Centre Block during the Victorian era then this book is definitely for you. Learn about the fire of 1916 and that it probably was not an accident. Find out the surprising way workers used to make the copper roofs go green and why Queen Victoria's magnificent lion might be a tad lacking. With this book written with flair and humor Don Nixon takes you on a behind the scenes journey that not only has its pitfalls and pratfalls it holds the determined spirit of a young nation up for all to see and admire. Fire on the Hill Frank Rockland, 2013 What really happened on the night of February 3, 1916 when a fire destroyed the centre block of the Canadian Parliament buildings? Inspector Andrew MacNutt of the Dominion Police's Secret Service, his wife Katherine and Count Jaggi know since they were there in the reading room when the fire started. Ever since the war began MacNutt has been struggling to secure Canada's borders against acts of sabotage organized by German military attachés based in New York City. The good news is that the Americans have finally ordered them back to Germany. The bad news is that Berlin has sent one of their best operatives, Count Jaggi, to replace them. Using his cover as a Belgian Relief representative, Count Jaggi visits Ottawa where he meets and is attracted to Katherine who is helping him organize a local fundraiser. Unaware that Inspector MacNutt has intercepted his secret messages and is hot on his trail, Count Jaggi takes a final trip to Ottawa to see Katherine with tragic consequences. Material Traces of War Stacey Barker, Krista Cooke, Molly McCullough, 2021-11-02 Material Traces of War: Stories of Canadian Women and Conflict 1914-1945 looks at Canadian women's experiences of and contributions to the world wars through objects, images and archival documents. The book tells the stories of women who worked as civilians, served in the military, volunteered their time and grieved lost loved ones through thematically organized vignettes. The authors place these personal narratives of individual women and their related material culture in the wider context of the world wars while demonstrating that the experience of living through global conflict was as individual as a woman's particular circumstances. Drawing from the collections of the Canadian War Museum, the Canadian Museum of History and other public and private collections in Canada, Material Traces of War brings largely unknown material culture collections to public view and draws attention to the untold stories of women and war. Modern Messages from Green Gables on Loving, Living and Learning Robert V. Smith, 2021-10-20 Many people have read and been inspired by the Anne of Green Gables novels. However, few may know very much about the extraordinary intuition, brilliance, creativity and productivity of the Anne author, Lucy Maud Montgomery, 1874-1942. Fewer still may understand how Montgomery was much ahead of her time as a feminist and an advocate for women's roles in society as reflected in her writings and life story. This book encourages readers to imagine how Montgomery's life experiences influenced the life of Anne and consider how these real and imaginary lives offer messages for 21st century men and women: their loving living and lifelong learning. It offers such understanding by revivifying Anne a little more than 100 years after she left her literary existence in 1919 to portray her life story fundamentally tied to loving The revivified Anne and her physician husband Gilbert Blythe review the life challenges and triumphs of their creator and how Montgomery's example might offer messages for us on living and learning. Anne and Gilbert know that Montgomery was a keen observer of others akin to many of the characters in her books. They describe how Montgomery imaginatively captured the essence of the people around her. The associations include not only the benevolent individuals on her beloved Prince Edward Island and in Ontario, Canada but also the bigotry, sexual repression and small mindedness common in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The revivified Anne and Gilbert in this book illuminate Anne's and Montgomery's lives that portray integrity, tolerance, compassion, generosity, perseverance and graciousness even in times of personal adversity. When these traits are combined with lifelong learning, creativity and a dedication of service to humanity, we realize enduring messages for all members of the global community in our modern times.

Sabotage in Hespeler Paul Langan, 2022-03-22. WWI was raging and our Canadian boys were fighting and dying overseas. On February 3rd 1916, our Parliament building in Ottawa burned to the ground under suspicious circumstances. On February 6th 1916, the A.B. Jardine Munitions Factory in Hespeler, Ontario was destroyed by fire. Was the fire set by German spies? Paul Langan weaves a creative non-fiction short story based on the facts uncovered that fateful day in Hespeler. 4000 words.

Canadian Engineer, 1910 Death in the Peaceable Kingdom Dimitry Anastakis, 2015-05-28. Death in the Peaceable Kingdom is an intelligent, innovative response to the incorrect assumption that Canadian history is dry and uninspiring. Using the hooks of murder, execution, assassination and suicide, Dimitry Anastakis introduces readers to the full scope of post-Confederation Canadian history. Beginning with the assassination of Thomas D'Arcy McGee, Anastakis recounts the deaths of famous Canadians such as Louis Riel, Tom Thomson and Pierre Laporte. He also introduces lesser-known events such as the execution of shell-shocked deserter Pte Harold Carter during the First World War and the suicide of suspected communist Herbert Norman in Cairo during the Cold War. The book concludes with recent Canadian deaths including the suicides of Amanda Todd and Rehtaeh Parsons as a result of cyberbullying. Complementing the chapters are short vignettes, Murderous Moments and Tragic Tales that point to broader themes and issues. The book also contains a number of Active History exercises such as activities, assignments and primary document analyses. A timeline, 24 images and further reading suggestions are included.

Collections & Recollections Donna Snethun, 2015-06-26. My raison d'être. This is a book of my memoirs but it is more than that. It goes back in time to include stories I have heard since childhood about my forefathers and mothers. I am grateful that the writing bug has been so strong in the Falla family. I look on whatever writing abilities I have as a gift To me it is more than a hobby its a passion The histories that were written by Uncle Art Falla in the history books of Kinsella and District Hoofprints and Homesteading and of Sedgewick and District Sedgewick Sentinel were invaluable in my writing of this book Picking the brains of family members sisters cousins and Aunt Thordis Taylor have been of enormous assistance While our memories of any particular incident may not be exactly the same the sharing and the jogging has made the memories I have come alive In 2005 my original book Collections Recollections 1st edition was printed It is a book of memoirs I have received wonderful feedback on that book and hope that you enjoy this book as much as did the readers of Collections Recollections 1st edition I have lived too interesting a life to not leave this legacy It seemed only right to include stories about my childrens paternal ancestors the Snethuns and the Sathers After having been married to Andy Snethun for fifty five years in many ways these families seem like my family I hope you enjoy following the unique lives of several generations of these pioneer families I have really tried to write only stories that very few of my readers will be able to say That happened to me too Scattered throughout my memoirs you will find poetry all of which are my originals Sometimes I write poetry like I talk not knowing when to quit I write poetry as long as the thoughts keep coming I try to control myself when I talk so I dont do the same
