Fires In The Glen:

Fire Lover Joseph Wambaugh, 2016-10-18 The hunt for the most prolific American arsonist of the twentieth century in this Edgar Award winning true crime story that's stranger than fiction The New York Times From Joseph Wambaugh the 1 New York Times bestselling author of such classics as The Onion Field and The Choirboys comes the extraordinary story of the chase for the Pillow Pyro led by one ambitious firefighter Growing up in Los Angeles John Orr idolized law enforcement However after being rejected by both the LAPD and LAFD he settled for a position with the Glendale Fire Department There he rose through the ranks eventually becoming a fire captain and one of Southern California's best known and most respected arson investigators But Orr led another unseen life one that included womanizing and an insatiable thirst for recognition While Orr busted a slew of petty arsonists there was one serial criminal he could not track down Nothing was safe from the so called Pillow Pyro's obsession Homes retail stores and fields of dry brush all went up in flames His handiwork led to millions of dollars worth of property damage and the deaths of four innocent bystanders But after years of evading the police he made a mistake one that would turn Orr's life upside down The Washington Post raves When Joseph Wambaugh talks about the culture of cops versus the culture of firemen we get no speculation only hard earned details Based on meticulous research interviews case records and thousands of pages of court transcripts Fire Lover is Wambaugh at his best

The American City Arthur Hastings Grant, Harold S. Battenheim, 1912 Living with Fire Tom Griffiths, Christine Hansen, 2012-11-12 Within the Yarra River catchment area nestles the valley of Steels Creek a small shallow basin in the lee of Kinglake plateau and the Great Dividing Range The escarpment walls of the range drop in a series of ridges to the valley and form the south eastern boundary of the Kinglake National Park The gentle undulations that flow out from the valley stretch into the productive and picturesque landscape of Victoria's famous wine growing district the Yarra Valley Late on the afternoon of 7 February 2009 the day that came to be known as Black Saturday the Kinglake plateau carried a massive conflagration down the fringing ranges into the Steels Creek community Ten people perished and 67 dwellings were razed in the firestorm In the wake of the fires the devastated residents of the valley began the long task of grieving repairing rebuilding or moving on while redefining themselves and their community In Living with Fire historians Tom Griffiths and Christine Hansen trace both the history of fire in the region and the human history of the Steels Creek valley in a series of essays which examine the relationship between people and place These essays are interspersed with four interludes compiled from material produced by the community In the immediate aftermath of the fire many people sought to express their grief shock sadness and relief in artwork Some painted or wrote poetry while others collected the burnt remains of past treasures from which they made new objects These expressions supplemented by historical archives and the essays they stand beside offer a sensory and holistic window into the community's contemporary and historical experiences A deeply moving book Living with Fire brings to life the stories of one community's experience with fire offering a way to understand the past and
