Magazine Ever wonder how American television came to be the much derided advertising heavy home to reality programming formulaic situation comedies hapless men and buxom scantily clad women Could it have been something different focusing instead on culture theater and performing arts In Same Time Same Station historian James L Baughman takes readers behind the scenes of early broadcasting examining corporate machinations that determined the future of television Split into two camps those who thought TV could meet and possibly raise the expectations of wealthier better educated post war consumers and those who believed success meant mimicking the products of movie houses and radio decision makers fought a battle of ideas that peaked in the 1950s just as TV became a central facet of daily life for most Americans Baughman s engagingly written account of the brief but contentious debate shows how the inner workings and outward actions of the major networks advertisers producers writers and entertainers ultimately made TV the primary forum for entertainment and information The tale of television s founding years reveals a series of decisions that favored commercial success over cultural aspiration Light from the Dreaming Spires Kenneth J. Barnes, 2017-09-19 Just as generals are always fighting the last war my experience as a chaplain at Oxford University has taught me that the church often speaks to the last generation The statistics provided by the Pew Research Center say it all The people of Generation Y are less likely to go to church believe in God or identify themselves as religious than any previous generation yet they still have a deep and abiding interest in spiritual things If the church is going to reach this group of seekers with the Gospel of Jesus Christ it will have to do it on their terms speak their language and understand their concerns If we try to fight the last war with Generation Y we will lose it Instead church leaders must seriously examine how we relate or not to Generation Y and change our tactics accordingly This book is a reflection on my personal experience of ministry to Generation Y combining pastoral care mentoring and postmodern apologetics in ways that are equally applicable to parochial academic and or secular settings The Friendship Book, 1999 Francis Gay, 1998-04 Mother Rising Yana Cortlund, Barb Lucke, Donna Miller Watelet, 2012-05-09 Different from a baby shower where gifts are lavished upon the soon to be born child a blessingway ceremony honors the mother to be and creates a circle of support that will cradle her as she prepares to give birth Surrounded by the most important women in her life she can explore the challenges and joys that lie before her gaining a sense of power and confidence that will help her rise to motherhood MOTHER RISING shows women how to organize and personalize a blessingway for the expecting friends and family an experience that will give the mother to be the best possible gifts of deep happiness serenity and abundance of love A resource for planning and hosting a blessingway ceremony a woman centered celebration of the journey into motherhood Ideal gift for or from an expectant mother who wants a more meaningful and transformational experience than the traditional gift focused baby shower Outlines the five stages of the blessingway ritual from establishing a safe and sacred space to honoring and pampering the mother to be Finalist in both the 2004 Independent Publisher Book Awards and Foreword magazine s Book of the Year Awards Features sidebars inspirational
