Fireside Tales Of The Traveller:

Fireside Tales of the Traveller Children Duncan Williamson, 2017-07-05 Duncan Williamson was a Scottish traveller who went on to become one of Britain's master story tellers. During his lifetime he was acclaimed the greatest English speaking storyteller, the national monument of British storytelling, and at his death Scotland's greatest contemporary storyteller. Fireside Tales, his first book, reveals this artistry and mastery in all its glory. This new edition is edited by his wife Linda Williamson. Fireside Tales is narrated with an intense commitment to generations of the travelling people who used animal fables, wonder tales, and splendid horror stories to instil in their children moral judgment and a knowledge of right and wrong. At every corner the technical skill of the narrator is revealed, his ingenious mixture of conversation and action, frequent change of pace, use of the first person, all attributes of the born storyteller which compel attention where tension and excitement are at fever pitch throughout. With a universality that can relate to every reader, this book represents one of the great collections of traveller stories.

Fireside Tales of the Traveller Children Duncan Williamson, 1985 Scottish Traveller Tales Donald Braid, 2002-07-25 The Travelling People of Scotland are the traditionally nomadic minority group known also by the derogatory term tinkers. Traveling in groups or in their individual caravans along the high roads and byways of Scotland, they have established a distinct identity and mode of life for themselves that preserves centuries old cultural beliefs. For their skill as storytellers as well as ballad singers, they are internationally recognized for the richest storytelling traditions of the world. One of their best known storytellers is Duncan Williamson. He was fascinated by storytelling from an early age and dedicated himself to keeping the wisdom of traveller culture by learning as many stories as possible. While this book focuses on a number of individuals, both Duncan's skill as a storyteller and his extensive knowledge of traveller storytelling traditions are prominently featured through a series of performance transcriptions and interview excerpts. Although their oral tales have been compiled and collected in other volumes, this book is the only full length study that analyzes the stories of the Travelling People. Through an examination of their words, narratives, and songs, it brings readers close to Travellers' own voices and to their distinctive practice of storytelling. Indeed, this analytical appreciation of the culture shows how the story performances preserve the history of the Travelling People and reveal the shape and substance of the storytellers' own lives. It renders too the rich variety of stories, the interrelationship of stories and the community, the construction of the teller's identity within the story, and the story's way of understanding and shaping human experience. Although concentrated on these Scottish storytellers, this book imparts insights into the process of storytelling in general and contributes understanding of the place of stories in human communities and to human identity.

Niles, 2022-09-20 Born in 1928 in a tent on the shore of Loch Fyne Argyll Duncan Williamson d 2007 eventually came to be recognized as one of the foremost storytellers in Scotland and the world Webspinner Songs Stories and Reflections of Duncan Williamson Scottish Traveller is based on more than a hundred hours of tape recorded interviews undertaken with him in the 1980s Williamson tells of his birth and upbringing in the west of Scotland his family background as one of Scotland's seminomadic travelling people his varied work experiences after setting out from home at about age fifteen and the challenges he later faced while raising a family of his own living on the road for half the year The recordings on which the book is based were made by John D Niles who was then an associate professor at the University of California Berkeley Niles has transcribed selections from his field tapes with scrupulous accuracy arranging them alongside commentary photos and other scholarly aids making this priceless self portrait of a brilliant storyteller available to the public The result is a delight to read It is also a mine of information concerning a vanished way of life and the place of singing and storytelling in Traveller culture In chapters that feature many colorful anecdotes and that mirror the spontaneity of oral delivery readers learn much about how Williamson and other members of his persecuted minority had the resourcefulness to make a living on the outskirts of society owning very little in the way of material goods but sustained by a rich oral heritage American Fiction, 1774-1850 Lyle Henry Wright, 1939 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07

Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery
