Fireweed Evangelism Christian Hospitality In A Multi Faith World:

Fireweed Evangelism Elizabeth Geitz, 2004-11 Fireweed always the first flower to spring up and bloom in ruins and burned over places is Elizabeth Geitz's metaphor for evangelism that comes from the heart. It is the motivation that makes some Christians eager to welcome the stranger and invite people into their churches while others hang back. In this prequel to Entertaining Angels Hospitality Programs for the Caring Church Geitz explores this missing ingredient in Christian hospitality reminding us that in a multi faith world where Christians wish to honor the validity of other religious paths we may hesitate to talk about the uniqueness of Jesus Christ. Her book helps both individuals and communities to understand what holds them back from evangelism and discover the path that is right for them. This book unfolds in three sections. In the first we look at the factors that inhibit our evangelism including the awareness that we live in a pluralistic world and do not wish to offend those with other faith commitments. Geitz offers both reflection and exercises to help us discover our own motivation for evangelism. Part 2 addresses the question of context. Where does evangelism take place and for whose benefit? To what sort of communities do we invite those to whom we reach out? Section 3 focuses on the uniqueness of Christian hospitality and describes the nuts and bolts of newcomer ministry and the programs needed to sustain Christian hospitality in a pluralistic society. It includes workshop and group process material.

The Gospel Comes with a House Key Rosaria Butterfield, 2018-04-16 What did God use to draw a radical committed unbeliever to himself Did God take her to an evangelistic rally Or since she had her doctorate in literature did he use something in print No God used an invitation to dinner in a modest home from a humble couple who lived out the gospel daily simply and authentically With this story of her conversion as a backdrop Rosaria Butterfield invites us into her home to show us how God can use this same radical ordinary hospitality to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own but as God's tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look think believe and act differently from us into our everyday sometimes messy lives helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like

Key Rosaria Champagne Butterfield, 2018 With engaging stories from her own life changing encounter with radically ordinary hospitality Butterfield equips Christians to use their homes as a means to showing a post Christian world what authentic love and faith really look like God's Welcome: Amy Oden, 2008-05-01 God's Welcome is a different kind of how to book on hospitality one that studies the stories of God's welcome and takes seriously the culture of hostility that sometimes masquerades as Christianity Gather your small group or leadership group discussion guide included in the book and dig into the important work of gospel hospitality Gospel Comes with a House Key Rosaria Butterfield, 2018-04-30 Winner of the 2019 Christianity Today Book Award in the Christian Living Discipleship Category This book is going to shake us all up in the most wonderfully destabilizing way Ray Ortlund Lead Pastor Immanuel Church Nashville A New Look at Hospitality as a Key to Missions Christopher J Freet, 2014-11-06 Many Christians have grown up with a very limited concept of missions and missionaries In this view a missionary is a person who goes and preaches to lots of people often in primitive lands and explains the theology of the gospel The natives are convinced and become Christians Thus the gospel commission is fulfilled Actual missions have not been carried out in this way very much Missionaries are generally very aware of the personal aspect of their activities and the importance of hospitality But western churches have become much less attuned to hospitality The days are past when visitors could assume they'd be invited home for lunch or become personally connected to people in a church they visit But hospitality is a key concept and a key practice in the Bible both in Old and New Testament times This involved both God's relationship with his people in which some entertained angels in their relationships with one another and in the way they reached the world with the good news God had given to them Chris Freet examines the biblical idea of hospitality the role it played in biblical times and the example that provides for us He concludes that the western church needs to be re-awakened to the mutual and reciprocal biblical definition of hospitality that it must undergo some contextualization in order for the biblical role of hospitality and the person of peace to work in it and 3 it must transition from short term encounters of hospitality in the West to long term relationships as the family of God This is a serious theological examination but it is also both a challenge and a practical guide to help us get started in giving hospitality the role in our churches that the biblical story envisions Church on the Way Nell Becker Sweeden, 2015-07-17 The practice of Christian hospitality reaches back to the early centuries of Christian life as well as deep into Jewish history life and Scripture This practice is alive today in Christian churches and in parachurch organizations within the United States but new contextual realities in particular twenty first century global migration patterns have altered the conditions under which hospitality is practiced The reality of migration and its effect on human lives disrupts static conceptions of hospitality and challenges ecclesial communities toward contextual appropriation of hospitality practice This volume explores Christian hospitality practice in light of twenty first century U S Latino a migration and it develops the notion of a journeying hospitality of accompaniment with and among persons migrating which fosters deeper relationships and formation The shifting identities of persons on the move challenge assumptions about what it means to welcome another in hospitality and ultimately what it means to be church from within these new relationships In turn the new conceptions and expressions of hospitality offered in this book press how the nature and mission of the church will be oriented toward new ecclesial patterns and alternative forms of residing on earth

Hospitality, Service, Proclamation Tom Wilson, 2019-04-30 For many the idea of interfaith engagement is one to be treated with scepticism Whilst there is fierce discussion around interfaith issues at a scholarly level this fails to make an impact on the practice of the church And yet an increasing number of those training for church leadership will find themselves in churches which are at the heart of diverse and often divided communities In Hospitality Service Proclamation Tom Wilson seeks to demystify the interfaith project Written for ordinands and those preparing to minister in neighbourhoods where interfaith and intercultural dialogue are essential Wilson argues that rather than a threat to churches interfaith dialogue is an important tool for discipleship

Hospitable God George Newlands, Allen Smith, 2016-07-22 Exploring the hospitality of God and its implications for human thought and action this book examines the concepts of hospitality as cognitive tools for reframing our thinking about God divine action and human response in discipleship Hospitality is imagined as an interactive symbol changing perspectives and encouraging stable environments of compassionate construction in society Human rights are of crucial importance to the wellbeing of the people of our planet But there is a sense in which they will always be an emergency measure a response to evils as they are happening The authors argue that a hospitable comparative theology reaches out to bring Christian hospitality into the dialogue of world religions and cultures It will respect the identity of particular groups and yet will strive for a cosmopolitan sharing of common values It will respect tradition but also openness to reform and re imagining It will encourage convergence and development in a fluid stream of committed hospitalities
