pre Platonic texts particularly Homer's Iliad. It demonstrates how essential persuasion was in almost every relation between mortals and between mortals and gods in early Greek texts. While being reduced to a mere psychological phenomenon by later Greek philosophy, reduced to the practice and study of rhetoric, persuasion was for the early Greeks a pre-ontological force associated with a turning toward presence. Michael Naas's work approaches the critique of presence in that it tries to articulate a notion of persuasion turning that cannot be squarely located within metaphysics. The California Countryman, 1917
