

First Aid For Children

1. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this aid is to give the most common first aid advice for an emergency situation. This is not intended to replace professional medical advice and is not intended to be used as a substitute for professional medical advice.

WHEN TO GET HELP

Seek medical help when you are concerned for a child's health. This may be that you are not sure what to do, or that the child is in a serious condition.

HOW TO CALL THE EMS

- Be calm and clear.
- State clearly the address you are calling.
- The operator will ask you a series of questions to get the most important help for the situation quickly to the scene.
- Be ready to provide your name, location, number and age of the child, and the nature of the injury.
- The operator will stay on the phone to get other further information from you and give you further first aid instructions as you wait for the ambulance and the operator continues to give you advice.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

It is essential that you provide the following information to the operator in your call.

- The location of the child's current condition.
- Any history of the child's condition.
- Any information the parent has given to the operator.
