Haddad, Northern Lights Publishing House, 2014-10-17 If you would like to worship as the apostles did this book is for you Their worship was dynamic in its simplicity Do you take for granted that the founders of major Christian denominations would approve of the way your denomination worships today Find numerous quotes from them at the beginning of each chapter on various forms of worship we engage in Do you take for granted that second century apostolic fathers worshiped the same way your congregation worships today You will find at the end of each chapter quotations from these early Christian leaders in the 2nd and 3rd centuries about what they approved of and did not approve of in Christian worship Do you take for granted that the way your congregation worshiped is pretty much the same as Christian worship has been since Jesus apostles began the church Numerous scriptures are quoted throughout each chapter in order to help the reader know what God wants in worship to him Yes we are worshiping God not ourselves Cain s sin was that he worshiped to please himself Are we a Cain or an Abel In this book every form of Christian worship common today is reviewed Is your worship unbalanced with so much of one thing that it chokes out other ways that please God This book ends with an appeal that is applicable also to the other book in this two book series Can the denominational world unite Pagan religions and atheism are trying to take hold around the globe and to choke out Christianity Divided we fall United we stand Let us go forward Back to the first century

Knight, 2010-08-11 Historians have noted the connections between the Wesleyan Methodist movement that began in the eighteenth century the emergence of African American Methodist traditions and an interdenominational Holiness movement in the nineteenth century and the birth of Pentecostalism in the twentieth century This volume written by historians theologians and pastors builds on that earlier work The contributors present a diverse array of key figures denominational leaders and mavericks institutional loyalists and come outers clergy and laity who embodied these movements The authors show that in spite of their differing historical and cultural contexts these movements constitute a distinct theological family whose confident and expectant faith in the transforming power of God has significant implications for the renewal of the contemporary church and its faithfulness to God's mission in the world today Contributors Corky Alexander Estrela Alexander Kimberly Ervin Alexander Leslie D Callahan Barry L Callen Douglas R Cullum Dennis C Dickerson D William Faupel Philip Hamner David Aaron Johnson J C Kelley Henry H Knight III William C Kostlevy Diane K Leclerc Joshua J McMullen Rodney McNeall Stephen W Rankin Harold E Raser Douglas M Strong Matthew K Thompson Wallace Thornton Jr L F Thuston Arlene Sanchez Walsh Steven J Land Laura Guy John H Wigger A View from Above J. W. Murphy, 2014-10-10 Imagine what your Christian development would be like if you grasped the true character of God you were captivated by appreciation of and love for God's Word you were not frightened away by the haunted house of Revelation you appreciated how the early church's experience influenced the message of Revelation you understood how various viewpoints on Revelation developed over time you enjoyed a perspective which prevents tunnel vision you understood viewpoints about which you were previously unaware you esteemed fellow believers who have different understandings of Revelation you appreciated how the meaning of Jesus sacrifice is pictured in Revelation you practiced the message of Revelation in everyday life you were strengthened by an unshakable faith in God your faith was heartfelt and growing rather than formal or ritualistic you were strong enough to stand firm in the face of any and all spiritual opposition you were known for your moral and spiritual purity you were able to resist the seductions of our culture you demonstrated the sacrificial style of Jesus rather than the self-serving style of society you enjoyed the blessings of those who keep the words of Revelation's message your anticipation of Jesus return rose above a distracting concern with earthquakes wars and developing social events you appreciated your present and future spiritual realities you were eager rather than fearful about the future you enjoyed the depths of the relationship toward which God is moving us Preaching from Inside the Story Jeffrey W. Frymire, 2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching

Worship Changes Since the First Century K. M. Haddad, 2014-10-12 Trace the exact date changes were made in church worship since the first century These changes were mostly led by popes who had bought their office led armies against people rejecting them and had illegitimate children Trace the protesters since the second century and the persecution they endured often being burned at the stake Discover the hymns we sing still today written by the protesters sometimes just hours before their torturous death Then be challenged to go forward Back to the Bible Be challenged to get rid of denominationalism and unite only in Christ with our only headquarters being in heaven Can it be done Christian unity Read this and make the challenge your own
