First European Elections:

The First European Elections Chris Cook, Mary Mother Francis, 1979-04-11 Routledge Handbook of European Elections Donatella M. Viola, 2015-08-14 The Routledge Handbook of European Elections explores the multifaceted dimension of the European Parliament's EP electoral contests across the European Community and European Union since 1979. After setting a general empirical and theoretical framework, this collaborative project presents original contributions from leading experts from virtually all the corners of the European Union. Each case study adheres to a common template that makes it easy to compare data, methodology, and outcomes. Every country chapter includes a brief geopolitical profile and historical background of the Member State, a glance at the national political landscape, a short account of the main political parties including their attitude toward the European Union, a section on public opinion and European integration, a summary of electoral systems, an overview of all EP and national elections, an in-depth analysis of the 2009 EP electoral race, an overall theoretical interpretation of European elections. A comparative chapter closes the Handbook, followed by an Epilogue focussing on the 2014 EP contest with a detailed analysis of the newly elected European Assembly in terms of political group and gender composition. The volume aims to enhance readers' understanding of the European Parliament and revive their interest in the European integration process. By providing a wide range of national and European facts and figures, this investigation represents a comprehensive reference guide to scholars, practitioners, and students of the European Parliament.

The European Parliament Election of 2019 in East-Central Europe Vít Hloušek, Petr Kaniok, 2020-06-03 This book provides an analysis of the European Parliament elections 2019 with a focus on East-Central European countries. The authors offer conceptual insights into Euroscepticism and discuss traditionally familiar concepts in a new light, pairing East-Central European Euroscepticism with visions of illiberal democracy on the one hand and showing the increasing Europeanisation of Eurosceptic parties in the region on the other. The book combines a fresh and innovative conceptual treatment with rich and accurate empirical evidence in order to highlight the dynamics of Euroscepticism in new EU member states. Students and experts interested in EU politics within academia and beyond will find this volume particularly informative.

2019 European Elections, 2020-09-29 This volume aims to provide consolidated analyses of the 2019 European elections and explanations about the future of the European party system in a context in which the EU has to face many challenges, including the erosion of electoral support for mainstream parties and the increasing success of populist parties. The structure of the book is designed to combine the overall view on the role of elections in shaping the future European project with relevant case studies. The reader is given a perspective not only on the results of the European Parliament elections as such but also on how these results are related to national trends which pre-exist and what kind of collateral effects on the quality of democracy they could have. Why Europe Will Not Run the 21st Century Valerio Volpi, 2011-05-25 What future awaits Europe One of irrelevance where the emerging powers will crush the Old Continent or perhaps not Why Europe Will Not Run the 21st Century focuses on the necessity of radical and dramatic institutional reforms at the EU level not only to streamline a decision making process fragmented into a thousand trickles and naturally prone to the influence of powerful interest groups but also to involve the citizenry whose convinced support is necessary to the success of the project The EU is a distant entity whose democraticity is highly disputable The press ignores it and citizens know very little about it as the EU does things they do not really care about or cannot comprehend at all Citizens unawareness and lack of participation and involvement means the impossibility to create a real close knit European civil society and public opinion Why Europe Will Not Run the 21st Century revives the idea that only a federal Europe made up at least initially of a limited circle of pioneer states and characterised by a common Constitution central government and real European political parties will manage to work out the constitutional political economic and ethnic discrepancies inherent in so large a Union of states thus overcoming the EU's inability to face domestic as well as external threats and allowing Europe to halt its apparently inexorable decline

The European Parliament in the News Dimitrios Souliotis, 2022-02-13 This book analyzes the social legitimacy deficit of the European Parliament EP in the United Kingdom and Greece It does so by considering it partially a communication deficit and by addressing the relevant inadequacies of its communication and media relations performance Following this approach the book identifies and critically analyzes the problems that the European Parliament is facing in communicating and portraying itself to news websites in the United Kingdom and Greece and offers potential solutions to the issues presented The book provides an initial comparison of the scale of the problems that the EP is facing in its communication and media relations performance in Greece and in the United Kingdom focusing on a number of prominent carefully selected impartial or pro European websites The failures of the EP to secure adequate levels of visibility on these websites automatically signify serious basic weaknesses in its communication strategy This book identifies those weaknesses their causes and presents solutions on how to solve them Therefore this book is a must read for students and scholars of political science and media communication as well as policy makers and practitioners interested in a better understanding of the European Parliament's social legitimacy and communication deficit
