Experience Alex Rajczi, 2024-04-24 The Art Experience An Introduction to Philosophy and the Arts takes readers on an engaging and accessible journey that explores a series of fundamental questions about the nature of art and aesthetic value. The book's 12 chapters explore three questions: What makes something a work of art? How should we experience art to get the most out of it? Once we understand art, how should we evaluate whether it is good or bad? Philosophical theory is illustrated with concrete examples: the paintings of Frida Kahlo, the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, the masks of the Nso people, and many others. Classic questions are balanced with cutting edge challenges such as Linda Nochlin's work on the exclusion of women from the artistic canon. The Art Experience presupposes no prior knowledge of philosophy or art and it will be of interest to any reader seeking an accessible and engaging introduction to this field. Along the way, readers learn how philosophical theories can affect our real world experiences with painting, music, theater, and many other art forms.

Key Features: Accessible for any college student; assumes no knowledge of philosophy, art theory, or any artistic medium; Organizes topics conceptually rather than historically, allowing students to more easily grasp the core issues themselves rather than tracing their historical evolution; Offers readers a large number of contemporary examples and a consistent focus on the way theory can affect people's real world experiences with art; Explores questions about bias, for example, whether the artistic canon has excluded some groups unfairly and whether definitions of art are Western biased.

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan, 2024-10-15 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia's brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country. Long before Britain's invasion of Australia in 1788, First Peoples' cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations. Their art shaped the continent as we know it today, and the societies that thrived here, but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s. In this publication, twenty-five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times. Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines, it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media, time, and language groups. Today, Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice. In very real and tangible ways, this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia's First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience. This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne's revitalised Potter Museum of Art, opening in 2025. Also titled 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art, the exhibition, curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO, Ms Judith Ryan AM, and Ms Shanysa McConville, features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism.
