First Passionate Collector The Ian Lindsay Collection Of Inuit Art:

The First Passionate Collector Winnipeg Art Gallery, 1991 Exhibition presenting a selection of 152 works from the Ian Lindsay Collection of Inuit art Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, 2000 Inuit sometimes referred to as Eskimo art is the primary art form of Canada and has a large international following particularly in the United States Japan and Germany Despite its popularity the complete history of Inuit art has never been presented This is the first chronological synthesis of Inuit art following its development from prehistory through early American and European exploration to the recognition of Inuit art as a commercial possibility and up to the present There is a particular emphasis on contemporary art and artists and the years 1950 through 1997 are each given separate detailed treatment in regard to important shows and events This history is appropriate both for the beginning admirer of Inuit art and for those already well immersed in it An Annotated

Bibliography of Inuit Art Richard C. Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2015-07-25 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications In Good Hands Ellen Easton McLeod, 1999-12-20 The Canadian Handicrafts Guild broadened the definition of art and the artist in Canada Linking decorative arts with home arts and handicrafts the Guild consistently showed them together at annual exhibitions at the art gallery in Montreal and formed a permanent collection documenting old and contemporary crafts The Guild women combined creativity and philanthropy voluntarism and an entrepreneurial spirit education and concern with quality in a movement that provided income and recognition to craftspeople and a craft legacy to Canada In Good Hands is alive with the interplay between art and social history and the issues this dialogue raised at the time and those we bring to it now constantly overlap It deals with noblesse oblige and the era's patronizing attitude to cultural difference but shows how the Guild consciously fostered an inclusive national feeling by exhibiting and selling crafts of all Canadians on an equal footing It also draws a much broader perspective of women's roles in shaping our culture than has been the norm in Canadian art history Inuit Art Quarterly, 1995 In the shadow of the sun, 1993-01-01 This volume makes available in English most of the essays written to accompany the Canadian Museum of Civilization's exhibition of the same name Not included are the essays by Gisela Hoffman Bernadette Driscoll and Elizabeth McLuhan and the exhibition catalogue section which appeared in the original German publication This book provides an overview of the evolution of contemporary Native Canadian art Regional styles as well as individual artistic styles are discussed and the various subjects themes and techniques reflected in the works are examined Published in English "Craft, Community and the Material Culture of Place and Politics, 19th-20th Century " Janice Helland, 2017-07-05

Craft practice has a rich history and remains vibrant sustaining communities while negotiating cultures within local or international contexts More than two centuries of industrialization have not extinguished handmade goods rather the broader force of industrialization has redefined and continues to define the context of creation deployment and use of craft objects With object study at the core this book brings together a collection of essays that address the past and present of craft production its use and meaning within a range of community settings from the Huron Wendat of colonial Quebec to the Girls Friendly Society of twentieth century England The making of handcrafted objects has and continues to flourish despite the powerful juggernaut of global industrialization whether inspired by a calculated refutation of industrial sameness an essential means to sustain a cultural community under threat or a rejection of the imposed definitions by a dominant culture The broader effects of urbanizing imperial and globalizing projects shape the multiple contexts of interaction and resistance that can define craft ventures through place and time By attending to the political histories of craft objects and their makers over the last few centuries these essays reveal the creative persistence of various hand mediums and the material debates they represented Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Mapping Modernisms Elizabeth Harney, Ruth B. Phillips, 2018-11-01 Mapping Modernisms brings together scholars working around the world to address the modern arts produced by indigenous and colonized artists Expanding the contours of modernity and its visual products the contributors illustrate how these artists engaged with ideas of Primitivism through visual forms and philosophical ideas Although often overlooked in the literature on global modernisms artists artworks and art patrons moved within and across national and imperial borders carrying appropriating or translating objects images and ideas These itineraries made up the dense networks of modern life contributing to the crafting of modern subjectivities and of local transnationally inflected modernisms Addressing the silence on indigeneity in established narratives of modernism the contributors decenter art history's traditional Western orientation and prompt a re-evaluation of canonical understandings of twentieth-century art history Mapping Modernisms is the first book in Modernist Exchanges a multivolume project dedicated to rewriting the history of modernism and modernist art to include artists theorists art forms and movements from around the world Contributors Bill Anthes Peter Brunt Karen Duffek Erin Haney Elizabeth Harney Heather Igloliorte Sandra Klopfer Ian McLean Anitra Nettleton Chika Okeke Agulu Ruth B Phillips W Jackson Rushing III Damian Skinner Nicholas Thomas Norman Vorano The Visual Arts in Canada Brian Foss, Sandra Paikowsky, Anne Whitelaw, 2010 This book charts the developments in Canadian art from the late nineteenth century to the present with new essays by the country's leading art historians A comprehensive overview this volume embraces painting sculpture photography design video and conceptual and cross-disciplinary art as well as studies of art institutions and historiography Each chapter explores the richness and diversity of Canadian art topics range from impressionist painting to the multimedia work of First Nations artists and from the Group of Seven to contemporary video production Newly commissioned carefully edited and with 185 full-colour illustrations The Visual Arts in Canada will appeal to general readers and students alike An extensive index as well as an appendix that lists galleries and artist-run centres across the country make this the definitive resource for Canadian art from the past century Throughout the twenty chapters readers will recognize favourite artists and encounter new ones all of whom play an integral role in the country's visual history

Guardians of Memory Céline Saucier, 1998 Since the 1950s when the Inuit began to settle in permanent communities the sculpture of Nunavik has earned renown throughout the world One of the most striking themes in this art is the figure of the Inuit woman especially when portrayed as a mother busy at some traditional domestic task Guardians of Memory explores this cultural expression seeking links between the sculpted figure and the Inuit woman's identity appearance and activities as well as examining sculpture inspired by legend myth and the imaginary world The evolving story of these sculpted women reveals not only the great diversity of subjects themes and shapes to be found in such work but also the fertile imagination of the men and women who carve in the villages of Inukjuak Ivujivik Kuujuaapik Povungnituk and Salluit This sculpture rooted in a people's lifestyle takes on deeper meaning as the links between humanity and the sculpted stone emerge

Canadiana, 1991 Quevillon Collection, 1978 Arctic Expressions Susan Joan Gustavison, McMichael Canadian Art Collection, 1994 Survival, 2004 Ethnoarts Index, 1992 The Sea Woman Frédéric Laugrand, J. G. Oosten, 2008 The authors explore the relationships between Inuit shamans and their ability to communicate with nonhuman beings like Sedna the sea woman and how this is reflected and expressed in Inuit art The authors show that despite the current dominance of Christianity contemporary Inuit art and culture are still powerfully shaped and influenced by the shamanic traditions of the past
