First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton Kenneth Munro, 2004 This book is the story of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church Edmonton and the people who made it such a fascinating religious community The colourful characters the saints and sinners the good and the worthy the weak and the domineering and portrayed in a very caring fashion The dignity and worth of the human spirit along with the foibles of human nature are laid bare in this portrayal of a congregation s struggle to assert a dominant role within the Presbyterian and Edmonton communities With the arrival of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in what latter became the province of Alberta and the formation of the congregation in 1881 the influence and prestige of members of the congregation ensured Presbyterians played a vibrant role over the religious and public affairs of the national Church and throughout northern Alberta until the disruption of 1925 The haemorrhage of members of First Presbyterian Church Edmonton to the new United Church of Canada left a weakened congregation with a diminished presence in the Presbyterian Church and provincial society This book examines how this struggling congregation has attempted to rise to prominence again and move out of the shadow of humanism and play a credible Christian role within our twenty first century secular environment

Korea Japan and lesser Pacific Islands      St. Joseph's College Kenneth Munro,2015-12-02 When Archbishop Henry O Leary became the second archbishop of Edmonton in 1920 he had a dream to build a western Canada Catholic college that would educate students in the Christian intellectual tradition This is the story of how a small Roman Catholic institution confronted daunting challenges to become a Christian beacon of enlightenment at the very heart of the secular University of Alberta Scholarship and community life in residence was always supplemented with teaching from the Christian Ministry Team to form Christian citizens who would go out into the world to serve the larger community following graduation In 1963 the Congregation of St Basil took over the administration of the College from the Christian Brothers de la Salle who had administered the College from its founding in 1926 Since its establishment almost ninety years ago the College has continued to provide young men and women with post secondary courses grounded in Roman Catholic thought while pursuing their undergraduate degrees at the University of Alberta Initially a residence was built for men but O Leary s dream of also constructing a women s residence never died and was finally realized in 2015 Faced with slender means misunderstandings student mischief and personality clashes the mission of St Joseph s College has guided faculty administrators staff and Board members throughout its history and melded them into a close knit community whose example is the envy of other units at the University of Alberta      The Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada Presbyterian Church in Canada. Boam,1914      The Munro Family from Longlac Kenneth Munro,2014-09-04 This is the story of the Munro family of Longlac George Jane and I spent our salad days in this picturesque little Northwestern Ontario community based on the pulp industry nestled between two First Nations reserves It is the story of a largely agricultural family whose members had deep roots in the soil of Saskatchewan and Ontario and whose offspring struggled throughout the twentieth century to become well educated middle class urban family members Although my grandparents and parents brought family characteristics to bear on the development of me and my siblings this little community provided an environment in our early years which left an indelible influence on all three of our lives Longlac was a mirror of the larger Canadian environment which sometimes exhibited prejudice and stifled creativity but it also exhibited tolerance and allowed freedom for personal growth Education was the passport to employment in urban Canada and to a full participation in Canadian life Our parents saw that my siblings and I knew of our origins in both western and eastern Canada and gave us every opportunity to become familiar with both the English and French languages and cultures Our eye on the world was the CBC whose low power relay transmitter broadcast English language programs during the day This environment was our springboard to success in our various professions and provided the following generations with an ability to contribute to Canada as hard working caring members of a middle class family      ... Annual Session Order of the Eastern Star. Grand Chapter of Vermont, 1921      Re-imagining Ukrainian Canadians Jim Mochoruk, Rhonda L. Hinthner, 2011-01-01 Ukrainian immigrants to Canada have often been portrayed in history as sturdy pioneer farmers cultivating the virgin land of the Canadian west The essays in this collection challenge this stereotype by examining the varied experiences of Ukrainian Canadians in their day to day roles as writers intellectuals national organizers working class wage earners and inhabitants of cities and towns Throughout the contributors remain dedicated to promoting the study of ethnic hyphenated histories as major currents in mainstream Canadian history Topics explored include Ukrainian Canadian radicalism the consequences of the Cold War for Ukrainians both at home and abroad the creation and maintenance of ethnic memories and community discord embodied by pro Nazis Communists and criminals Re Imagining Ukrainian Canadians uses new sources and non traditional methods of analysis to answer unstudied and often controversial questions within the field Collectively the essays challenge the older essentialist definition of what it means to be Ukrainian Canadian

Doing What's Best For Kids John Gilpin, 2012-10-09 Doing What's Best for Kids is a centennial history of one of the most important social institutions in the history of Fort McMurray It explores the Fort McMurray Public School Board's relationship since 1912 to the development of oil sands salt mining fishing lumbering steamboat operations aviation and railway development The booms and busts of these industries at times threatened the existence of the district and at other times were the basis for growth The people who have made this history are a feature of this book This group includes Douglas Craig and Cassia McTavish who ensured that the fledgling school established in 1912 would survive the economic slump of 1913 The struggles with the department of education in Edmonton over funding and school approvals are another theme Collectively it is the story of persistence and accomplishment in a location far from Edmonton but rich in human and natural resources
