

CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776. A DECLARATION BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

WHEN in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for just People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and so assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them; a Decree is due to the Opinions of Mankind regarding those Rights which the Consideration of Justice should assign to the People.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect these Ends Liberty and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for Light and transient Causes; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Endure are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, pointing out a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, it is their Duty, to throw off such Government, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect these Ends Liberty and Happiness. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which constrains them to alter their former System of Government. The History of the present Oppression of these Colonies is a History of repeated Injuries and Usurpations, all having in direct Object the Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.
