The United States in Antarctica ,1997 This document represents the final report of the United States Antarctic Program External Panel The report has the unanimous approval of all 11 panel members and draws upon our collective experience which includes some 44 individual trips to Antarctica involving visits to all three U S stations each research ship support icebreakers and numerous field sites As a panel we visited McMurdo Station and South Pole Station and toured support facilities at Christchurch We received approximately 70 briefings and conducted 80 one on one meetings with individuals involved in virtually all aspects of the Antarctic Program Over 200 inputs were received in response to our request for public comments During visits to McMurdo and the Pole the Panel conducted informal Town Meetings and was the beneficiary of numerous comments by members of those communities having first hand experience in day to day operations We are most appreciative of the candor and professionalism with which we were treated by all those with whom we came into contact and in particular the members of the National Science Foundation who so expertly and constructively supported our efforts We believe the U S Antarctic Program is well managed involves high quality science and is important to the region as well as to the United States We also believe that in the current budget environment costs must be reduced preferably through increased efficiency and reinvention but if not through reduced scope Recommendations are offered herein to help ensure the continued viability of the program into the 21st century
