Hughes, 2015-08-25 Norbert M Samuelson is Harold and Jean Grossman Chair of Jewish Studies and Professor of Religious Studies at Arizona State University in Tempe Arizona Trained as an analytic philosopher he went on to establish the Academy of Jewish Philosophy in 1980 which contributed greatly to the professionalization of Jewish philosophy in America An ordained Reform rabbi a constructive theologian and a public intellectual Samuelson has insisted that philosophy is the very heart of Judaism and that in order to survive in the 21st century Judaism must rethink itself in light of contemporary science Through his scholarship and organizational work he has brought a Jewish voice to the dialogue of religion and science Viewing Jewish philosophy as central to the understanding of the Jewish past Samuelson has explicated the philosophical dimension of Judaism from the Bible to the present

Judaism and the Doctrine of Creation Norbert M. Samuelson, 1994-11-24 The topic of this book is creation It breaks down into discussions of two distinct but interrelated questions what does the universe look like and what is its origin The opinions about creation considered by Norbert Samuelson come from the Hebrew scriptures Greek philosophy Jewish philosophy and contemporary physics His perspective is Jewish liberal and philosophical It is Jewish because the foundation of the discussion is biblical texts interpreted in the light of traditional rabbinic texts It is philosophical because the subject matter is important in both past and present philosophical texts and to Jewish philosophy in particular Finally it is liberal because the authorities consulted include heterodox as well as orthodox Jewish sources The ensuing discussion leads to original conclusions about a diversity of topics including the limits of human reason and religious faith and the relevance of scientific models to religious doctrine

Jewish Philosophy Norbert Samuelson, 2006-09-19 Surveys the history of Jewish philosophy from the formation of the Hebrew Scriptures This book is intended for courses in Jewish philosophy as well as for more general courses in religious thought Judaism and philosophy It highlights the Hebrew Scriptures the Midrash medieval rabbinic commentaries and modern works of Jewish theology

Abraham Abulafia's Esotericism Moshe Idel, 2020-10-12 This book focuses on Abraham Abulafia's esoteric thought in relation to Maimonides Maimonideans and Islamic thought in the line of Leo Strauss theory of the history of philosophy A survey of Abulafia's sources leads into an analysis of the esoteric meaning on the famous parable of the three rings considering also the possible connection between this parable which Abulafia inserted into a book dedicated to his student the 13th century rabbi Nathan the Wise and the Lessing's Play Nathan the Wise The book also examines Abulafia's universalistic understanding of the nature of the Bible the Hebrew language and the people of Israel or the Sinai revelation The universal aspects of Abulafia's thought have been put in relief against the more widespread Kabbalistic views which are predominantly particularistic A number of texts have also been identified here for the first time as authored by Abulafia

Creation David Fergusson, 2014-09-21 This book explores anew the theme of creation in Scripture tradition and contemporary theology

David Fergusson defends the classical account of creation out of nothing but gives more sustained attention than the Christian tradition typically has given to the holistic significance of the created world Offering both doctrinal exposition and apologetic argument Fergusson discusses creation in relation to the problem of evil and the fall divine providence deism Darwinian evolution environmental ethics animal rights and other matters Unusually the book also touches on the topic of extraterrestrial intelligence Concise and accessible Fergusson's Creation will be particularly useful to students and others seeking a well informed overview of this important subject Decolonizing the Theological Curriculum in an Online Age

Chimera Nyika,Y. Mvula,2022-10-28 The second annual conference of the Theological Society of Malawi was held at the historic Ekwendeni Campus of the University of Livingstonia from 14 to 16 September 2021 It took up the urgent theme of the decolonization of the theological curriculum Though Malawi has been an independent country for 58 years coloniality still stalks the land This book calls theologians to take a lead in decolonization while navigating the educational task in an online age With more than twenty institutions teaching theology at tertiary level in Malawi and now united in the Theological Society of Malawi there is huge potential to learn from each other in developing the theological curriculum in the country While the primary audience is unashamedly a Malawian one this book might also prove relevant in other contexts where there is a reckoning with past and present experience of colonialism The book is a call to action and is published in the hope that it will have lasting impact on the teaching and learning of theology in Malawi and beyond Time Matters T.M.

Rudavsky,2012-02-01 Despite the importance of time and cosmology to Western thought surprisingly little attention has been paid to these issues in histories of Jewish philosophy Focusing on how medieval philosophers constructed a philosophical theology that was sensitive to religious constraints and yet also incorporated compelling elements of science and philosophy T M Rudavsky traces the development of the concepts of time cosmology and creation in the writings of Ibn Gabirol Maimonides Gersonides Crescas Spinoza and others Jewish Faith and Modern Science Norbert M.

Samuelson,2008-10-17 In Jewish Faith and Modern Science renowned Jewish philosopher and rabbi Norbert Samuelson argues that modern Jewish philosophy has died that it has failed to address the challenges to traditional beliefs posed by scientific advances and is therefore no longer relevant to Jews today Samuelson confronts these challenges head on critically reflecting on how all of the forms of contemporary Judaism from orthodox to liberal to secular to new age can address questions raised by the latest scientific advances Considering questions ranging from the existence of the soul to the relationship between God and particle physics to the debate over when life begins and ends Samuelson paves the way for a rebirth of Jewish philosophy applicable to life in the modern world Science, Religion and Society Arri Eisen,Gary

Laderman,2015-03-04 This unique encyclopedia explores the historical and contemporary controversies between science and religion It is designed to offer multicultural and multi religious views and provide wide ranging perspectives Science Religion and Society covers all aspects of the religion and science dichotomy from humanities to social sciences to natural sciences and includes articles by theologians religion scholars physicians scientists historians and psychologists among others The first section General Overviews contains essays that provide a road map for exploring the major challenges and questions in science and religion Following this the Historical Perspectives section grounds these major questions in the past and demonstrates how they have developed into the six broad areas of contemporary research and discussion that follow These sections Creation the Cosmos and Origins of the Universe Ecology Evolution and the Natural World Consciousness Mind and the Brain Healers and Healing Dying and Death and Genetics and Religion organize the questions and research that are the foundation of the enormous interest and controversy in science and religion today The Death of Jacob Kerry Dwaine Lee,2015-10-20 In The Death of Jacob Narrative Conventions in Genesis 47 28 50 26 Kerry Lee investigates the deathbed story of the patriarch Jacob and uncovers the presence of a variety of conventional structures underlying its composition especially a conventional deathbed story or type scene also found in numerous other texts in the Hebrew Bible and non canonical Jewish literature Finding fault both with traditional diachronic approaches as well as more recent synchronic studies Lee uses an eclectic but coherent blend of contemporary methods drawn from narratology linguistics ritual theory legal theory assyriology and other disciplines to show that despite its probably composite pre history the last three chapters of Genesis have been intentionally and artfully structured by the hand predominately responsible for their final form

Revelation and the God of Israel Norbert M. Samuelson,2002-05-23 Revelation and the God of Israel explores the concept of revelation as it emerges from the Hebrew Scriptures and is interpreted in Jewish philosophy and theology The first part is a study in intellectual history that attempts to answer the question what is the best possible understanding of revelation The second part is a study in constructive theology and attempts to answer the question is it reasonable to affirm belief in revelation Here Norbert M Samuelson focuses on the challenges given from a variety of contemporary academic disciplines including evolutionary psychology political ethics analytic philosophy of religion and source critical studies of the Bible This important book offers a unique approach to theological questions and fresh solutions to them and will appeal to those interested in the history of philosophy religious thought and Judaism The Creativity of God Oliver Davies,2004-08-05 We have as a theological community generally lost a language in which to speak of the created ness of the world As a consequence our discourses of reason cannot bridge the way we know God and the way we know the world Therefore argues Oliver Davies a primary task of contemporary theology is the regeneration of a Christian account of the world as sacramental leading to the formation of a Christian conception of reason and a new Christocentric understanding of the real Both the Johannine tradition of creation through the Word and a Eucharistic semiotics of Christ as the embodied sacrificial and creative speech of God serve the project of a repair of Christian cosmology The world itself is viewed as a creative text authored by God of which we as interpreters are an integral part This is a wide ranging and convincing book that makes an important contribution to modern theology Levinas, Judaism, and the Feminine Claire Elise

Katz,2003-11-14 Challenging previous interpretations of Levinas that gloss over his use of the feminine or show how he overlooks questions raised by feminists Claire Elise Katz explores the powerful and productive links between the feminine and religion in Levinas s work Rather than viewing the feminine as a metaphor with no significance for women or as a means to reinforce traditional stereotypes Katz goes beyond questions of sexual difference to reach a more profound understanding of the role of the feminine in Levinas s conception of ethical responsibility She combines feminist interpretations of Levinas with interpretations that focus on his Jewish writings to reveal that the feminine provides an important bridge between his philosophy and his Judaism Katz s reading of Levinas s conception of the feminine against the backdrop of discussions of women of the Hebrew bible points to important shifts in contemporary philosophy toward the creation of life and care for the other
